Thread: Win \$5 on PP with your Room

Ace™ - March 3, 2013, 11:38 am

Do you have a cool nice looking room? Take a picture of a clean version of your room and a messy version. The best one will win $5 via PayPal. PM me your pictures. This will end at 9 PM EST. So there's 6 hours left.

2 Pictures

- Clean Version
- Messy Version

Also, if you have a clean room, just take a few books throw it on the ground and a few shirts throw it on your bed. And push down your computer chair so you can clean up faster.

whats the point of taking a picture of your room?

SIM-985864 - March 3, 2013, 12:38 pm

Do the pictures have to be taken now? Because I have clean pictures of my room that I took a couple months ago.

"Do you have a cool nice looking room?"

Probably because the coolest nicest room is going to win, I think it's a advantage to take a picture of your room then.

Hope I helped
Cheers

As for those people that are questioning why, its for a project I am doing and I don't have a camera atm and I need the pics by tonight.

SIM-985864 - March 3, 2013, 12:53 pm

I just took some pictures and cleaned my room even more, however I want to know what are these going to be used for? Please be specific as possible because I don't want pictures of my room all over the internet.
