Thread: Buying Forum Logo Design

NZT - March 4, 2013, 9:56 am

Hey Guys,

I am willing to pay (the amount depends on the quality, but it will be at least $5) for a logo for a forum.

Please post here if you are willing to give this a shot - thanks.

P.S. (It is RuneScape related)

I'm willing to give this a shot but I would really appreciate some more info about it. Anything specific you want? Do you want the initials "NZT" on the logo?

Nah, it should not say NZT, I have PMed you specific design instructions.

Anyone else willing to give this a shot?

I saw this posted somewhere else, this was already made and wasn't made for this contest, if it really was stolen, shame, seriously just for some money.

Also PM me the details, I saw your post on my thread and I can give this a shot!
