This guy must be one of the best designers here on hackforums.net. He delivers very fast and brings the best quality designs you can get. I ordered a logo for my company and got it 12 hours and it was purely AMAZING how good it was designed. My sales even increased 3% overnight when i switched from my old own designed PS logo to his one!

#Bacardi - April 11, 2013, 12:48 am
