Thread: Clarification about scam report on me.

King - March 10, 2013, 12:32 am

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3315539>

First off, I'd like to say that I haven't received a penny from the money. I was doing an exchange for someone. I didn't even take fees. Though, Cryptic and Anonymous are both legit, they did send the LR and I sent it to the other side. Well, it was too good to be true.

Someone posted this on the thread:

Quote:B) He got someone else to pay me and they charged back. Which I don't understand why he would trust someone else to pay, and not pay him self as he would risk something like this happening.

That's very true. That's what happened. It happened on Skype. Will let someone trusted like F8 to check my Skype (no need for screenshots) I made a mistake but didn't scam. I'd never scam anyone on HF. I've spent more than 3 years here without any report. Shit happens.

Again, Cryptic is genuinely right. Anonymous as well. I really don't know what to do ...

EDIT: And it's quite shameful to be honest, to see all this shit and all your shitty posts without even knowing the reasons. I won't scam anyone. I'd never think about scamming anyone. Neither IRL nor on HF.

tl;dr: I was a middleman. I received the LR from Cryptic or Anonymous, waited till the other side (<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1133072>) sends the money, then sent the LR to them. I understand all what Omniscient did and I want to thank him for letting me post.

EDIT: Resolved! :)

So he is the guy who actually made the chargeback. But still bro you should have not done that for him.

Please try to read. Cryptic is legit as fuck. The other party (I was a middleman) charged back the PayPal. I don't even have a verified PayPal myself, I live in Lebanon and can't create a PayPal and verify it. I only do like $2-$10 deals using PayPal.

Unnoticed - March 10, 2013, 12:43 am

Yeah.

Glad to see this isn't your fault. Hope all is resolved.

Nah, it's my fault. I'm always honest. Although I didn't get a penny, it's still my fault. I'd send the $235 right now if I had them, too bad I don't. But will get this resolved with both Cryptic and Anonymous.

Autopost - March 10, 2013, 12:46 am

I'm sorry to say but it's your deal and your responsible.

I'm not saying it was an intentional scam, nor was it your fault.. But at the end of the day it's your responsibility and furthermore it's your responsibility to pay the user what he is owed. It's always sad to see someone taken advantage of, but again, that's your fault for trusting the user.

So do whatever you have to too recover the money, and pay him back ?

I wasn't accusing him of not going to pay it back, I'm just saying that the scam report on him is legit. Let me be more clear, the scam report was caused by someone fucking him over, but it's still his mess to clean up.

I wish you all the best on sorting it out, take the person to court if you have to, and all the best in getting back into mentors and the reviewers ?

Happy to see this is getting resolved! I'm also glad Omni posted the explanation on the dispute thread!

I wonder, will you become a Mentor again? When all of this is cleared? I hope so :)

Thanks man.

I really don't know about the Mentor thing. I do hope to become a mentor again and I don't think I was demoted.

Omniscient said: "But as a precaution he's removed from Mentors and Reviewers. ". So I don't know. It's all up to him.

I'd like to thank him for taking these decisions. Wise decisions as always.

'Cody - March 10, 2013, 1:57 am

Why'd you middleman for 'em? Who is that guy?

Regardless at least now you're aware middle manning w/o letting the other party know can turn to crap. Shitty thing is, the user that initiated a chargeback more than likely has nothing to lose on this website. Now if you plan to resolve it you'll be out $235.00.. fuck that would suck.

Wish you the best in getting the money back to them.

Yeah that was a big mistake he did here.

And the best we are hoping is that he case will be in our favor so he don't have payback .

Autopost - March 10, 2013, 3:00 am

This might be slightly off topic but...

It's really sad to see all this stuff go on, how Xch4ng3 had to stop dealing, and now most likely you...

I mean why people always try to screw each other over is beyond me.

SkullTraill - March 10, 2013, 3:20 am

Money can corrupt anything or anyone. I'd probably not value a 3 year old account at just $250 though.

#Skyline - March 10, 2013, 3:41 am

This clears it all up.

You where in the wrong position at the wrong time.

SkullTraill - March 10, 2013, 4:00 am

I'd like to say this: While it wasn't Bood's intention to screw anyone over, you can't say it wasn't his fault. HE offered the middlemad service, and it was his responsibility. Although, if he was only offering 1 way service then I don't see the problem. Basically as long as he held up his end of the deal. But then again what kind of person would use a middleman for 1 way? XD

Apple J4ck. - March 10, 2013, 4:55 am

I'm pleased to hear that everything was cleared, hope you'll get everything resolved soon.
Good Luck.

The GRim - March 10, 2013, 5:59 am

See my reply bro. I told them that it must have been someone else's PP.

Well, now regular members will have more of a non-trustworthy reputation associated with them.

Hope you can get this resolved. Please, everyone, don't think that all regular members scam.

You have been here long enough where at the least we owe you the benefit of the doubt.

Cryptic™ - March 10, 2013, 10:25 am

It has been resolved, I won the dispute as it was a Virtual good.

Lesson to be learned, Never let someone else make PayPal payments for you.

This has been a learning experience for everyone

Vegas - March 10, 2013, 10:27 am

Cryptic™ - March 10, 2013, 10:31 am

I sent Omni a PM a few hours ago, Hopefully he'll give him his Mentor and Reviewer back.

Conjuration - March 10, 2013, 10:33 am

Congrats on getting it resolved! :)

Hopefully, it's all up to him anyway. Thank you. Will close this now. Omniscient will open it if needed. ?

Quote: Glad you manned up to your mistake. Takes balls.

It does take balls but that's the right away.

Always be honest and you will find everything getting resolved. Even if I had to pay the $235, it'd have been hard, but I'd have done it because that would be the right way.

I'd like to say sorry for all the trouble, and next time guys, please just wait for the other party to reply just to know the story and don't jump straightforward to conclusions.

Thanks. ?

Revenge - March 10, 2013, 11:59 am

I'm glad to see this was worked out. I knew there was more to it with the status you have on this site to risk it over $200 or whatever would be insane.
