If you guys haven't watched it, PLEASE DO!

I honestly believe Zetsuen no Tempest is the BEST anime of 2013 so far.

Programmargorp - March 13, 2013, 9:26 pm

ZnT started in 2012

Also, Robotics;Notes, Psycho Pass, Shinsekai Yori all surpass it in terms of goodness in the same season.

I agree with you, though I'm not watching Robotics;Notes because I already had over 20 ongoing anime already, but I do plan on watching it later.

Psycho Pass and Shinsekei Yori are both better.

Well the majority of the episodes of Zetsuen have aired in 2013, so in my eyes it's a 2013 anime :P

I haven't seen the ones you've mentioned, and will definitely check them out, thanks!

Then just call it "best" of the winter season. ;P

Zetsuen is awesome but as stated above psycho-pass is better.

I'll also have to check shinsekai Yori after reading this

Although i cant wait for Zetsuen's next ep !

Psycho Pass is the best one of them, also Robotics;Notes latest episode was horse shit.

As was every episode of Zetsuen's second season, other than the most recent, but I digress.

Is Robotics;Note that good?

By the way Zetsuen no Tempest isn't the best of this season, because I don't think it can equal the story and the art of Psycho-Pass.

First 19 Episodes is pretty good and amusing but latest ones has been bad.

You forget the pet girl of sakuraso, Kotoura-san, little busters, oreshura and GJ Club on those epic anime of late 2012, ongoing 2013 list.

It's true for Sakurasou (As you can tell from my signature :D), but not Little Busters, it's good but not at the same level of Shinsekai Yori/Psycho Pass in my opinion.

GJ Club, Kotoura-san and OreShura are good as seasonal anime, not enough for "best of the year".

But that's just my opinion. ;)

Lelouch Vi Britannia - March 15, 2013, 10:29 am

I like it. But the anime was waaay to predictable, we all knew that what's his faces girlfriend was the mage of exodus.

Me and my friends had no idea ?

I like it, though I prefer Psycho Pass over it.

Plenty of handful that I like this time around!
