Neither the Silent JDB or the classic JDB are working for me lol.

Everyone says they're working but I have not gotten it to.

not sure why you would buy a jdb in the first place.

It's a downloader written in java you can easily make one yourself.

Listen to this guy.

And no, you are not allowed to resell.

Lol, I love that you just said that.

Basicly you tell him not to buy your own product..

Even though he already bought it

Foxxxy Java has always and will always be copy pasta trash. You're better making your own jdb and encrypting yourself.
