Thread: Scammed By "Shocking Swag" \$10 PP

True Religion - March 14, 2013, 1:26 pm

So basically, this is the story. I paid for 10k Instagram followers, and the user had me fill in a bunch of things, I don't currently have the PM's because my inbox was full and had to delete them. But, read the proof here it is enough. So anyways, I paid for 10 grand Instagram followers, and the user said they would be here in 4-6 days. They still are not, I PM'D him and he hardly replies, and tries to dodge the subject. This is his second scam report. Please ban this user.

Him saying to close it and hell refund me LOL -

They're not in it for HF.. They're in it for the fame. Like Anonymous. Claim to be protecting America, but they're in it for the fame.

That's basically it, they're in it for HF, meaning they're in it to find the so called "fame" desire us humans are born with, deep down wanting to fit in somewhere somehow, wanting to be heard, so losers do it over the internet apparently because they invested a little time into a website they like, like me, I spent however much it is to upgrade, but I've made $800+ thanks to this place.. I guess norms make fun of them but yet they're on the same site??
