This will get taken off HF for one reason.
It has an MC account stealer.
All discussion about that is banned on here :/
My stealer got removed because of that haha
Anyway nice stealer ^_^

Seen you work on this in the .NET Section, panel looks absolutely amazing. Show some videos of it in action for more sales as well. 5 starred :)

I added you on Skype. How much will this be selling for?

?ystem - March 20, 2013, 9:58 am

Not sales trashing, mind you, but I'm just skeptical about the product being provided here. I've seen you around a few times, asking questions about how to do relatively simple things in Visual Basic.NET, and saw one of your sources for stealing FireFox data, which was a public method. This was not too long ago. I just felt like bringing that up.

So, tell me, why should we go with your product? What is there to ensure us that the source isn't full of public methods, or that you authentically know what you're doing?

Again, not sales trashing. Just simply asking some questions which could serve to aide your sales, because you haven't given any of us anything to go off of in the thread.

Sorry, i'm not english, but if I undertsood :
The help post was not mine.

Quote:why should we go with your product Because it's a great tool with regular updates, exclusivities, new stealers & other things i can't put in public.
But i will not lie, it's not a revolutionary program lol

i hope your understand :)

This is a translation for you:

Spoiler (Click to View)

Il est sceptique, parce qu'il t'a vu poster des messages sur HF demandant de l'aide sur des stealers. Donc en gros il te demande des preuves que c'est bien toi qui a codé ce stealer, et que t'as pas juste copié/collé des sources publiques.

Et il répète plusieurs fois qu'il veut pas défoncer ton thread, mais que c'est pour que tu puisses donner plus d'infos, ce qui pourrait te permettre de booster tes ventes.

It looks really great. I saw you in the vb.net forum, when you posted the preview. Good luck with your sales! 5starred too!
