Thread: Pay Per Download \(PPD\) On forums guide \(no download required \)

zConroy - March 24, 2013, 9:11 pm

Introduction

Hello hack forums, I am zconroy and I have recently learned some tips and tricks, which are actually really helpful when it comes to Pay Per Download, this is a guide which states some of the most useful information to any amateur, or beginner, so let's get down to it.

Where do I start?

Well, you need to start off by doing a few things.

PPD site

~When choosing a Pay Per Download site you need to ask yourself a few questions. "Am I doing this for long term, or quick money?" - "Do I want something basic, or something with a lot of statistics and features?"

If you decided that you're doing this long term, you might want to consider File Ice, or Clean Files. With both of the websites you need to apply, yet it is pretty simple to get accepted. I've not used File Ice, but I do have some good experience with Clean Files.

Clean files is a simple to use, yet resourceful, it provides statistics and decent pay. Yet the pay is only once a week, with a minimum payout of $50.00

Shrink Once

Shrink Once provides instant payout, with a minimum of $0.1 which is almost unheard of in the PPD world! It is great ShrinkOnce, contains some basic (But useful) statistics, that are in a great easy to read format.

Both Shrink Once and Clean files have a great community forum, and Shrink Once has a nice owner who quickly fixes bugs, and problems on the site. Clean files currently has the bigger community, but ShrinkOnce is rapidly growing.

Organize

It is important to stay organized, I suggest that you download Evernote on both your phone on and on your computer. Ever note is basically word program which you make an account on, once you make a account you are able to download the software, and sign on your account on, on the software. Once you are signed in, whatever note or document you make, gets saved and moved over to all of the other mobile devices/computers that you are signed in the account with. I use it to help me brain storm, and to help keep a record of my finances to help me improve/see where I went wrong. If I ever have a idea, yet I am out of the house I quickly put it in the evernote app, and it syncs on my computer.

Prepare

There is not much preparing to do.

If your niche involves Youtube (which most do) try to either put up a few dollars for views (Here's a good website for it) or if you have no money, you could generate some free views with Enhanceviews.com. Enhance Views is a good website to get anything from facebook likes, to twitter followers, it simply works by downloading a program (or use a browser) where it will run on auto-pilot, and it will generate points, you can redeem those points you earned for, likes, views, subscribers, ect.

We're Almost ready to start! Now, you need to make 2-3 youtube accounts, and start posting videos!

EXTENDED INFORMATION-

Hello, this is my first tutorial of hopefully many more to come, I will be offering more advanced E-books that simply requires you to fill out a survey, I do this because it takes me time to do this tutorials, and a survey would not be too difficult for you, yet it will earn me a tiny bit of money.

If you have anything to add to this guide, or any thoughts please drop a comment.

Interested in more?

If you're interested in ranking your video, SEO tips, getting better traffic, ect, please PM me and I will send you one of the E-books that fill your needs, depending on which E-book I send, it might come in a survey! So, if you get it, please don't complain, because [b]most people ask upfront money for these :)

Now that I'm making money, I mainly purchase views from Enhanceviews, and also let it run over-night to get credits, I know they don't give the best of deals, but I know it works, and I've done it plenty of times now, I can still make profit off of it, I plan on expanding in a few months though with money I've been saving up.
