Did you upload the same thing this user <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3351277> sent you? I haven't checked the files either of you provided but i see you asked him for his file. It'd be shitty if you did this to "steal" the thanks he'd get for distributing that file. Then again, i do not know if these are identical files, i just know they're similar.
