So i came across this anime "Seikon no Qwaser", im thinking about starting to watch it so share your opinions about it. It's 8 episodes.

Here's the description:

In St. Mikhailov Academy, Oribe Mafuyu meets a silver haired boy called Alexander. He is a Qwaser, a being who can manipulate iron and draws his power from breast milk.

A mystery surrounding an icon transforms the academy into a setting for conflict between the various Qwasers.

^That sounds like extreme hentai or something....draws it's power from boobs? I really should watch that... :3

ohh and just watched 1 minute from the first episode...nice boobies....

I am watching it from this link, watch it if you haven't and post:3

I was trying to set up MPC-HC for a friend over teamviewer. Dragged this in to test it (not knowing what it was):

It got awkward..

But anyways, one of my friends said it was pretty good :3

Watched it, just an show with a lot of ecchi in it. I thought it was pretty good because it was different from all the other ecchi anime I've watched. If you like boobs showing every episode, then you might like it. The plot's an ehh, but I was just watching it for fun. Also, it's 24 eps in the first season, 12 eps in second season, 36 eps in all I think
