Update on the situation :

d0to - April 4, 2013, 11:57 am

That means your request has been acknowledged and will be sent out soon.

Pat. - April 4, 2013, 11:59 am

It means they have sent the payment. Paypal takes forever though so don't expect it anytime soon. I requested ACH and should have it by friday, if not friday then monday.

? Sending money over PayPal is instant? So it can't mean it's been sent out...

Soulcal - April 4, 2013, 12:08 pm

I requested it on monday, it turned processing today so hopefully I will be paid by the end of the week! ?

devildon111 - April 4, 2013, 12:30 pm

You obviously don't know file ice then. It is infamous for this.. Besides I get my payments before the status changes to "paid".

I know Filelce always sends out PayPal payments late. Just a misunderstanding I guess.

Await - April 4, 2013, 7:53 pm

I hope this post will clear up some stuff regarding payments on filelce for the few of you. Filelce doesn't personally send out the payments and that is why you don't get your Paypal, Wire transfers basically immediately. What Filelce does is they send them to their payment processor which is WebmasterChecks, they then send everyone payment, and that still takes time to get to you because Paypal is a bitch and with mass payments they have to clear everything. There is nothing Filelce can really do besides switch payment processors but WebmasterChecks is very popular and many networks use them including ShareCash and even adf.ly. About the Processing status, Filelce has three levels of statuses; Not Paid, Processing and Paid. Processing basically means that they sent it to the payment processor, they then need to receive it and who knows how long it takes them to really start sending out the payments.

The Seeker Of Truth - April 5, 2013, 2:20 am

It means you're gonna get paid pretty soon bro.

Soulcal - April 9, 2013, 6:15 am

ManUnited - April 10, 2013, 3:54 am

The payment should be sent by today, they had issues with the payment processors that's all. I spoke with iSki about it.

Natas - April 10, 2013, 3:56 am

It means your request has been sent to them and they will be sending the money some time soon.

You won't be able to unlimit it. Same happened to me a year ago. I thought I can unlimit it cause I turned 18 a few days later. It doesn't work that way dude. You will have to give them a call and they can withdraw the money to a different paypal or the credit card attached to your paypal.

Your account will stay limited and your credit card will stay locked to that account.

Requested on 1st April 2013

fuzzybear - April 16, 2013, 7:23 pm

File ice takes so long to send out payments I'm still on processing

WreckfullTM - April 17, 2013, 2:44 pm

You just need to be patient, and there are not like 24/7 and send you the money when you will need/want. It's a business though...

fuckthesystem - December 1, 2013, 5:40 am may someone tell what should i do with not paid status? on my last cashout i had processing stuff and got the payment until 10th. let me know

RadarX - December 9, 2013, 10:56 am

Allow me to clear a few things up since no one seems to understand why paypal payments take so long.

1) We do NOT send payments out late. We allow everyone to request their payments on the 1st of the month, and we send them all on the 2nd of the month.

2) The reason they take so long to arrive, even being sent on the 2nd, is because when we send a bank deposit to Paypal, it takes 3-5 days for them to clear it. (It even says this on their website.) It always takes us the maximum 5 days because we send such a large amount of money. Then, it takes them sometimes an additional day to process the payment information. Meaning your payment should arrive on the 7th or 8th.

3) If you want a super fast payment, use wire transfer. We send these out along with all other payment types (like paypal) on the 2nd. Meaning technically you should receive it on the 3rd if your bank is fast enough. If you don't live in the USA, you'll probably receive it on the 4th or 5th due to the time your bank takes to process the money.
