Thread: Akira - Discussion

Bliss - April 6, 2013, 8:17 pm

Hello, I have recently been shown by my father "Akira". It is my favorite Anime ever.

Here is the Wiki for it:

and for those who have not seen the trailer:

So, if you have ever seen it, discuss it here! If you haven't but are interested, explain why and so forth.

The ending was amazing. I like how the didnt explicitly explain what happened but left it to the audience to ponder on the meaning of it. Def a film every fan should watch.

I loved the ending. I was shocked how much it truly showed what happens when someone has an excessive amount of power. I actually cried from the ending scenes (the flashbacks)... Truly astonishing.

I may livestream it if I get a good amount of people as an audience.

I have it on Blu-Ray and I have an HDPVR (internal).

If you're interested, let me know!
