So if you make $1000 the first day why are you so anxious to re-sell it ?

Yeah, this sounds way too sketchy. Sorry OP, provide some proof that you bought this E-Book and that it is actually working.

Would be easy if you'd put a little effort into the sales thread. Grab a design, throw some information in it.

It says on the thread with uppercase letters "YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO RESELL".

Why would you buy a $250 item and resell it on HF, while not even upgrading to at least I33t.

And its not a rank, its pretty much only proof that you have money and that you are dedicated to this community...

This is a pretty known method and quite obvious to figure out.
Its also been public quite a while ago.
