revaluate21 - April 10, 2013, 12:43 pm

Why do you deserve to be upgraded:

I'm a polite and helpful person as I have mentioned in many other contests. However, I think sometimes people do not give me that much respect because I'm not upgraded. Therefore I'd love to have this upgrade so I can be acknowledged more.

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community:

Well I know that I haven't contributed much yet, but I'll surely be willing to help the community and take some time off for hackforums, it's a really nice community, but unfortunately, what normal users post usually have less attention than l33ts/ub3rs, and when you post something that could be quite useful for the community, it just wont get the attention needed.

Why do you want to be upgraded:

I'd like to do some contests and giveaways to this forum, but while being a normal user, doing contests is quite limited as you do not have any access to them anymore. I'd do mostly netflix and steam account giveaways, I'm full of them and would wish to empty.

What does being an upgraded member mean to you:

L33t would give me extremely nice extras to help me while being around the forums. Lets just say, that I want to start making a business around here (am surely planning one if I get l33t), I'd need the extra space and the reputation access to +rep the legit buyers, and people are usually secure when dealing with upgraded users, so that's also a plus.

Zapu - April 10, 2013, 12:48 pm

Why do you deserve to be upgraded: I feel like I should be upgraded because besides me sarcastic humour I am a nice guy and I am willing to help out new people no matter how frustrating the question is. Also with L33t they won't be so suspicious or scared of asking me which isn't what I want. I want them to be confident in asking me questions and confident in knowing I will help them.

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community: I've been trying to post HQ threads, and helping new members out(that you can see in my newest thread) I plan on doing some giveaways like giving Microsoft points, Paid software, PSN cards etc.

Why do you want to be upgraded: I could sell things, and having the L33T user bar gives people more trust in me. That way it helps me and other people.

What does being an upgraded member mean to you: Being an upgraded member means that you have more responsibility i guess. But It also means if you were upgraded by someone that you deserved it by contributing to the community and helping others out no matter the skillset, Which is why I believe I should be acknowledged in this and possibly win.

Thanks for your time :)

Encrypting - April 10, 2013, 1:20 pm

Why do you deserve to be upgraded:

I visualise myself as a high quality person and am as generous as I can be towards the HackForums community. I have contributed to the website and its users by sharing and distributing my knowledge, without being stingy and selfish. I have dedicated my time in order to assist members with whatever issues they may have.

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community:

I have contributed to the community with a few giveaways and a guide; this is not enough: I plan to become one of the most respected and generous members of this community, and will be giving away things as I previously have, which will not disappoint. I would also dedicate more of my time to this community to ensure there are as many happy members as possible.

Why do you want to be upgraded:

I would like to be upgraded so that I can pass the barriers which stop my ability from doing a few things, like give to the community. Let's say for example I wanted to give away a method. When you're a normal member, this is a great difficulty. The fact that we only have 50 PM space simply limits my abilities to do such things. The HF community is generally quite awesome; I love these forums. I would without a doubt be more interested in HF if I'm upgraded to l33t. I see myself as a HQ user and I have contributed towards the community numerous times, and will continue to do so. Thank you for this opportunity, as I cannot afford to buy an upgrade myself.

What does being an upgraded member mean to you:

Being an upgraded member to me, honestly is a sign of reputation, honesty, loyalty and respect-worthiness(of course this is not the case for all the members, but members who are generous and HQ for example yourself). It gives members many features unavailable to normal members like myself.

Thank you for your generosity and good luck to all participants.

Fidelity - April 10, 2013, 1:52 pm

Why do you deserve to be upgraded: Try to be as HQ as possible at all times, I also try to help others when needed

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community: E-Whore help

Why do you want to be upgraded: Would like to advance to further more abilities

What does being an upgraded member mean to you: Feels like you've contributed to the community

Sorry for not writing a novel like others :(

anish001 - April 10, 2013, 2:01 pm

Why do you deserve to be upgraded:I deserve to be upgraded because after my exams I would be donating a lot of my time towards hackforums community and it's members and doing earning of money from internet and donating to hackforums and doing a lot if contributions to hf community.and u have started donating ebay coupons and would do more.

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community:

I have donated my coupon code of ebay and I would do lot more donations for coupon codes money guides and whatever i have and can donate would love to donate to hf community rather being leacher.

Why do you want to be upgraded:

I would liked to be upgraded because I want to be a trusted member of hackforums and could be able to post in VIP areas and doing various thinhs which a l33t can't do as having PMS capacity giving +3 instead of +1 to high quality members and loved to do what I can do to members if hf community

What does being an upgraded member mean to you:

An upgraded member means to sign of being loyal,royal,helpful, donating judging and doing many things to community which a normal member can't do and being trustworthy to hf community and working as a part of team in community and lwaening much more than being a normal yser and donating to needy guys and op I don't have money to be upgraded as given money to a friend as he needs for webhosting services so I need to be upgraded and thanks for this nice giveaway.

Thanks for this nice giveaqat and god bless you op and good luck to all members. as i donr have money to be upgraded and given my money to needy friend for his webhosting services .

And thanks to respawn and marketers community for this giveaway and special thanks to Midlife Crashes . !!!

Zunix - April 10, 2013, 2:02 pm

Why do you deserve to be upgraded:

I feel that I deserve to be upgraded because I am a nice community member who tries to help as much as I can in any section that I have knowledge in. I was accepted for Ub3r the other day and would love to be upgraded.

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community:

Well I have done giveaways before, and I do TONs of free graphics requests on the forums, and over skype for Hackforums / Other Site Members.

I post as much help as I can in the gaming and VB.Net section as well.

Why do you want to be upgraded:

I wan't to be upgraded because it will show that I am a valued member in this community and that non-upgraded members can talk to me about the community, upgrades, and come to me for help.

What does being an upgraded member mean to you:

It means that I have officially reached my goal of becoming a respected and helpful member on this community, which was my aim at the start of registering.

Shr?k - April 10, 2013, 2:03 pm

Why do you deserve to be upgraded:

I feel like I'm an overall good person. No matter how far back I can think, I've never wanted to rude or mean to anyone, I've only wanted to make friends. I feel like that shows while I'm on the internet and in real life. I'm extremely generous to all my friends, in fact, recently when I had around $20 from a method I learned I upgraded my friend to L33T since he has absolutely no way of buying it himself. I do not regret doing it to this day, but now that I'm more active on this site I've started to want it myself a bit. Doing giveaways is something that I really love doing, but not that Omniscient has made it so that only upgraded members can do actual giveaways makes me limited to doing freebies, which is fine, but I can't just go throwing money at everyone on this forum.

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community:

I've done a good amount of giveaways so far, and I'm planning to do much more in the future, even if I don't get L33T. So far I haven't done any tutorials because the only thing I'm kind of good at is a really well known method and I'm working on ways to perfect it before I actually write it up.

All of my giveaways/freebies:

Giving out free money.

Giving away two games.

50 cent contest.

Netflix account contest.

\$1 contest.

62 cent contest.

10 free YouTube likes.

Hulu Plus code.

Why do you want to be upgraded:

First of all, the main reason is so that I can do giveaways again. I've also been curious about the L33T section. I guess the second biggest reason that I want it is because of the increased PM box. If I were to do a giveaway where a lot of people needed to PM me, I'm sure it wouldn't be too fun to wait a week for me to read all the existing PM's and then ask all the people to resend their PM's. Then all the other features L33T comes with also interest me a whole lot, but I can't really think of anything good to write about them.

What does being an upgraded member mean to you:

It means being able to contribute to this amazing community more than I already do. Being able to thank people besides just vouching on their thread, and being a true friend to all the people on this amazing forum. It really would mean the world to me if I won this prize. I've never won anything in a contest before, besides a Netflix account, but that's not too hard to get. Thank you so much for the opportunity to even have a chance at winning L33T.

It was just a big block of text so I made it look a little nicer.

Juice WRLD - April 10, 2013, 2:03 pm

Why do you want to be upgraded:-

I'd like to do so, as, it's known that, being an upgraded members worth much. If I do get upgraded to L33T, I could basically get more clients for my services, and, help with the development of HF and it's users.

What does being an upgraded member mean to you:-

Why do you want to be upgraded: I wish to be upgraded to UB3R because I will be able to give +3 and negative rep, also being more respected, not because I paid/got gifted UB3R, but because I am a truly legit member.

Why do you deserve to be upgraded: Well, had an account back in 2009, it got hacked and deleted.. Made an account in 2010 again and ever since I've been trying to get l33t. I deserve it because I've been a member for a long time and I think of myself as an HQ member. I'm a chill dude overall and love to hang out with others.

How have or how are you planning to contribute to the community: Did monetizing tutorials, but they got junked becuase of how old they were.. I help people over PM because as a normal member my posts get ignored. I plan on posting and giving out stuff a lot if I get l33t just because my posts won't get ignored.

Why do you want to be upgraded: Mainly so I can start posting a lot more. And being a normal member for so long isn't really good.

What does being an upgraded member mean to you: A LOT. I really want to start posting a lot more if I get the upgrade.

semi_blind - April 11, 2013, 4:58 am

Why do you deserve to be upgraded:

I believe that I deserve this upgrade because I am different from others here. I don't delight in hurting others. I find it a waste when you could be telling someone a kind word that instead people choose to flame and hurt one another. I strive to make people smile and to help them through their troubles, no matter what.

I have been in HF for quite a while and done quite a few giveaways and services for free. I remembered when I was just a noob desperately asking for advice from the mature members, my main goal is to help new legit users as I was also one of them not too long ago. I love anime and the AA section on HF is one of my favorites if not, my most! crosses-fingers
