Yeah, I could totally see the translated version of the one in the shirt onto your .psd file. It takes a lot of work to make it look like that.

That is very cool! I wish I could do stuff like that! ?

Slukey - April 10, 2013, 4:26 pm

Thats amazing, id get lost in all of them layers!

Toni - April 10, 2013, 7:25 pm

OP that is what I call dedicated work. Good job

xAMOKx - April 11, 2013, 12:06 am

Thats a really stunning piece, somehow reminds me of iron maiden lol

I actually think it looks even better than the one on the t-shirt due to the eyes.

2 things you could improve:

- Group and name your layers xD

- Vector image -> Vector Software, can be "rescued" by saving as pdf and opening in illustrator
