And when he got out everyone was like omg he had water but doesn't have a scratch on him and they all thought he was crazy strong.

Or I may be wrong lmao

In one of them, he gets teleported into a water room where he briefly sees Carmilla, then when he gets teleported back he is right in front of the door dripping wet

Wow there was another version? In the one I read it was sunlight. And there is no "wrong" version, just two different ones..

Layfon - April 14, 2013, 3:11 pm

Yeah xD, just one of the versions have been discontinued, stopped like a year+ ago when I was reading it, then I think the new one came out which started right from the beginning (old one only got to like 60 chapters)

One of them was called Crepuscule (Yamchi)

cough I may have been reading that one cough

But it continued all the way to chapter 96 last I checked....

Layfon - April 14, 2013, 4:50 pm

Yeah, then probably instead of replacing, kept old chapters and just added the new ones. (All depends on where you where reading it from)

Anyway, 100th chapter came out today, also guys, answer my question :P
