Well damn, I completely forgot about it.

Was hoping to rewatch the original series first as it's been years since I watched it. We'll see if I can find the time though.

Ahhh, it feels great to see all those characters again!

Really liked the first episode, ohh how I missed you Misaka. :3

Though, I'd like to see another To Aru Majutsu no Index for Misaka X Touma.

Just got around to episode one and I had some worries because I read only 4 minutes was actually canon with the rest filler. I gotta say that was some godly filler and the ED was awesome showing all the awesome action from the manga.

Friptide also didn't disappoint with the new song.

Just watched episode 2 and realised we see Touma in the OP, does that mean we will get to see Touma in a future episode!?

Well sonofabitch.

The only thing I can really say after years of anticipation is;

My body is ready.

Yeah this is going to be good, will probably be my second anime I watch of this season after it's completed, first being Shingeki no Kyojin.

Btw am I the only one who laughed the hell out of it when at the first scene they all got shocked?
