Here's the deal , he made a thread that he's buying bitcoin in exchange for lr

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3411926>

I offered him 1 btc for $70 paypal on his thread and he replied;

I asked if he's fine for a middleman before and he said yes so I thought he's legit as I've also seen his past exchanges so I sent him the btc first

After sending he said he'll wait for 5 nodes before he sends lr so i keep on pmi'ng him but he keeps on ignoring ,

Will remove this after he sends the lr/ send back the bitcoins.

you should really be more patient on btc and not call him a scammer in the first hour... thats why this is a bad way to trade/buy btc... it takes time to get confirmations, possibly hours... Have you gotten it yet? post a screen shot of the block chain transaction

I did check his rep and I've seen his previous legit exchanges, I wouldn't have opened this but he ignores all my pm's after the bitcoin was sent ;(and this is the first time I've opened a scam report

Legit scam report. Sorry for your loss dude. Hope you get it sorted.

Amnesia Haze - April 16, 2013, 10:22 am

Well.. How can you even trust somebody who has been on the boards for a month?

Anyways, sorry for your loss. Sux to be scammed.
