Thread: Monogatari Series: Second Season

Black Hole - April 23, 2013, 1:28 pm

That is the actual name for this season....no joke. Pretty original right? Anyway, did a search and it seems no one has made a thread specifically for this yet even though I swear I saw something about this a few weeks ago...

(I have no idea what that PV said...)

Name aside, I cannot, CANNOT wait (literally about to into cryosleep I want to watch this so bad) for this season to hurry up and come out in July. No changes were made to the cast or staff of the show so you can probably expect another perfect addition to the Monogatari series. If you haven't seen any of the Monogatari series (or read any of the light novels) first off, why are you in this thread....? Secondly, watch them. The viewing order is as follows: Bakemonogatari -> Nisemonogatari -> Nekomonogatari. Nekomonogatari is a movie (Or 3/4 part OVA) that takes place before and during the Bakemonogatari season but you need to watch the other two first.

I didn't understand everything as I'm not so good in Japanese(yet), but Nadeko said she hates Koyomi Onii-chan. :(

Can't wait until July.. I WANT IT NAO!

Huh, Araragi would have to screw up big to Nadeko to say that.

Quick question to everyone, favorite female from the show?

I can't decide between Karen and Tsukihi. Can I choose both? :c

Sure while the hell not. I personally prefer Karen, too kool for skool.

Programmargorp - April 24, 2013, 4:38 pm

Looking forward to this :O

What they said (From my limited understanding) is basically a very quick recap (kind of) about what happened in the other three seasons.

@Blackhole, mhm Karen > Tsukihi.

Everyone prefer Karen because of the toothbrush scene. ?

I prefer Karen because of her upbeat and slightly obnoxious attitude. And she has this weird innocence to her which I find irresistible. Ofc she can'd hold a candle up to Hachikuji or Shinobu.

I just don't know you.

The only person in this section I know well is Kurisu.

Black Hole - April 26, 2013, 8:45 pm

Mm, the series is ever closer approaching. Better warm up the ol' Crunchyroll subscription to stream it in beautiful 1080p.
