fuckyoubitches - April 25, 2013, 12:37 pm

Type down steps below. I have been trying for a very long time and got nothing. This seems like it's all about advertisting the E-WHORING books and shitloads of people confirm this but they could get paid to say anything. I won't believe a thing unless I make money and see it in my own hands!!

Vegas - April 25, 2013, 12:38 pm

Well since you were so charming in your approach, I'd imagine you'll get plenty of help.

?lvNet™ - April 25, 2013, 12:39 pm

Ur a new user, that has not contributed at all, why would we help you? Go buy a ebook.

ifconfig - April 25, 2013, 12:43 pm

How about getting a real job? Or making a legitimate contribution to the community?

Capitalism™ - April 25, 2013, 12:49 pm

Getting people isn't the issue. Convincing them to pay is the problem. OMI GOD if people could get tons (+15 USD) of money in a few hours or maybe half an hour.. I only need some cash to buy an iPad and If I know what to do next I may even buy more stuff from Amazon. HOW DO PEOPLE DO THIS?!! And what contribution???

BTW thanks a lot GORILLA you're the only one who tried to offer help.. however I don't think it may work because convincing vicitims is the hardest part. I don't know why do you have an entire section if this shit doesn't work. People say that they make thousands I only need a few hundreds!!

kaz7713 - April 25, 2013, 12:58 pm well please tell me what method your using and them maybe i can tell you where your going wrong maybe suggest a different method?

fuckyoubitches - April 25, 2013, 1:07 pm

I went on craigslist Australia and made a post about 19 y.o horny girl but the website blocked it for some reason and I couldn't do it so I went to USA Columbia server and it asked me for a phone confirmation and of course I couldn't verify it because I am from Egypt. I wasted 3 hours on this method trying to fix the issue and I also have used a couple VPN's but nothing worked. When I gave up I went on Omegle, some guy added me on Skype he offered me to trade nude pics I accepted but in exchange of money and of course he said fuck you bitch and kept insulting me like I was a real girl.. lol. The thing is I can't convince people I have shitloads of girls packs pics and know how to make up "snappy" stories for craigslist or any other similar website but I can't get people to pay me.. Why are experienced people here being so stingy? Someone just give me an idea or something to start with that's trustworthy to make real money in no time.

aswhooper - April 25, 2013, 1:28 pm

You need to have social manipulating skills. If you don't have them, ewhoring isn't for you. YOU have to convince your pedos to pay you, not us.

But some advice: Don't try to sell pics. Like ever. There's no reason to if you have a good vcw. Of course selling pics takes less work, but selling cam shows is way more profitable, believable, and efficient.

You can find a VCW here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3263222>

EDIT:

Didn't really feel like sharing this, but I decided to go ahead. When you get the pedo on skype, get like a 30 sec chat going; like ask him "asl", "how's your day" etc. Then say you're trying to sell camshows. Ask if he would want to buy one if you show him what you look like first. If he says yes, give him a preview. He says no, block him - anything more you say to him is a waste of your time. In the preview, try to do what he says and try to get him turned on and interested. Don't 'spoil' him. Then ask if he can pay you. You might have to do a bit of convincing (use your brain here), but if you're lucky he'll ask "how?". That's when you give him a link to the amazon gift cards and instruct him on how to pay. After you get the card in your email, you can either do the show (if your vcw features it), or block him. I recommend giving the show whenever possible. But of course if you promise him a $30 show for 30 mins like I usually do, that won't be possible, so it's alright either way.

Hope this helps you, and please don't make threads with vulgar names like that. It's just unattractive tbh.

Vegas - April 25, 2013, 1:52 pm

Experienced people here are not stingy. We just recognize the difference between a kind person asking for help and a child bitching and moaning about not making money.

It works for everyone else, you're clearly doing something wrong or are terrible at talking to people. I wonder which.

Expect - April 25, 2013, 2:02 pm

I agree with the many posts above... quit bitching and put the work in on e-whoring.. all of us have spent hours to days on learning this business. The better you get at it.. the more money you make.. i've made well over $5,000+ now. I got $300+ locked in paypal the first week i started. So I went by what I did wrong, fix it, and see what can work the next time. If your e-whoring and not making anything in a week.. something should tell you that your doing something wrong. fix it.. try new things.. new ideas.. and you'll make hundreds to thousands.. depends how good you want to be at this.

Vegas - April 25, 2013, 2:12 pm

Allow me to restate my feelings on this;

It's offensive when you come in with such rude words and demand that those of us who have spent our time learning and perfecting our methods, must share them. This is especially true, when there is so much information available if you'd only search for it.

I assure you, if you put more time into learning the right places to do it, exactly what certain people want to hear and see, and how much they are willing to give up to hear and see it, you will find success in your efforts.

Best of luck.

Queefmeister - April 25, 2013, 2:16 pm

Basically the problem OP has is that he's not the best at social engineering currently.

It's easy to bait people into speaking with you, but the speaking part is what's hard.

Read through all the guides that have been published for free here on the forum and I'm sure you'll earn some money sooner or later.

Not to brag, but I made about $300 my first 3 days doing it. Trust me when I say it's doable. Literally just follow any guide and you'll make money eventually. Then double it ;)

fuckyoubitches - April 25, 2013, 2:31 pm

Okay my good sirs thank you very much for being so friendly and helpful. But can someone of the experienced folks in here leave me his Skype to ONLY help me with the start and the rest will be on me.

The Unloved - April 25, 2013, 3:04 pm

Well you can try Omegle you will sometimes get an actual buyer fuckyoubitches - April 26, 2013, 8:13 am

YAY!! I have just made my first $25.. Don't know what to do now. I promised my client 30 mins cam show for $30 but I asked him for $25 earlier. He's very stingy lol. Anyways. Should I do the show or block him and e-whore him again? HAHAHAHA :D

That is up to you.

And all the guys above me are right, you need to learn the hard way to understand. Like we all did (at least I did). Read some psychology books, those will help you manipulate them.

I don't know what happened but today I earned nothing, I used the same method but apparently they learned that they should never pay random people online, they either leave the chat or tell that they don't want to pay, I don't think this is working anymore.

Well i dont mean to offend you but, people will help you only if you stop being impatient and smartpants.

Keep a low profile....roam around HF while going through threads and analyzing who can help you. PM the guy you think is capable enough of helping you out.

You never know when you strike a luck and get unexpected/unbelievable help to enable you to earn money that you have been dreaming so far.

TBAa - April 26, 2013, 12:04 pm

Why did you just give up so easy? You win some you lose some, I haven't ewhored. Some of it sounds easy some sounds hard but you can't go thinking your going to get money every signal time you get on.as tho that would be nice. Lol if you don't first succeed try try try again..

Fallow what these ppl are telling you they don't pay block them and moved to the next slave.. You know how many ppl are out there? Um a lot just keep looking you will get more money if you put effort into it and not stop trying

I have been trying trying for more than 6 hours and got nothing. I just don't know what to do!! :((

EDIT: I am being "impatient" because most of the experienced people here claim to make more than 60 DOLLARS A DAY!! Some guy in this thread said that he made 300 in his first three days and another told me that he made $135 from just one guy and probably in less than 1 hr.

TBAa - April 26, 2013, 2:00 pm

Listen use your brains... make up a lie say that your a college student really low on money and you need tp pay for school or sometyhing say you dont want to resort to this and say you will give them a show for 30$ or jsut ask if they will donate you money....!!!!"AFTER you get to know them a little the more you get to know someone the more they will trust you pick someone and just talk and flirt with them after say 45 mins of talking then bring up your a college student and need to pay bills and say hey ill give you a show if you pay me to help pay for my college books or something....ANYTHING make up a story the sky is the limit!!!

hope that helps buddy!!

Villanio - April 26, 2013, 2:12 pm

i havent gone through these post but my best advice would be to watch one of my streams coming up and you can see me make sales and exactly what i do.

fuckyoubitches - April 26, 2013, 2:19 pm

I don't think 45 mins would work cause most guys won't pay unless I get really lucky and a rich guy will finally pay. Plus it's a waste of time to talk for that much, and don't you think I have tried to snappy story tactic? I told me many people to help me with my rent and stuff and nobody did. Soo what do you think? and no I won't pay anyone to teach me I don't even have a credit card nor a paypal account.. lol.

Lol...i couldn't agree more. You made a valid point and left me speechless.

OfficialvTwisted1x - April 26, 2013, 2:22 pm

You're too lazy. You probably don't have the patients to actually sit down and learn it, or even sit there long enough to talk the guy into it.

It takes time..

fuckyoubitches - April 26, 2013, 2:25 pm

HOW DID YOU MAKE THAT MUCH IN AN HOUR?!

Yes and that's why I have spent more than 12 hours in this project.
