Max's profile in case of future name changes...

Profile : <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1111363>

Other scam reports on this moron:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3440051> (This one for $3. LOL)

Quick overview

Okay, he basically said he would buy my FIFA Ultimate Team coins for Xbox 360.

However the story from the start seemed too phishy for my liking, and as seen above this user has other scam reports on him.

I'll give him credit however; surprised he hasn't changed his name like other people.

Him adding, me accepting. Start of the conversation.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)[spoiler]

Him talking about paying via 07, then suddenly changes his mind.

[spoiler]

Here he links to a random profile - idiot.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Profile of Decompilator (1691135) - Please note he is not involved at all with the scam attempt.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

That users UID: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1691135>

Proof this is Max's Skype

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Him later removing it trying to cover his tracks.. obvious scammer move.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Refusing to go first because he is a 'voucher buyer'... or does he mean vouched scammer?
More like it. Asked for PM proof, he seems confused. Coincidence much.

Threats

Spoiler (Click to View)

Him 'threatening' to hack my Skype and telling me to add his personal one.
What I do know is 'Accident' is another User here, so not sure if that is Max's Skype, or jacked and trying to scam on?

Spoiler (Click to View)

DO NOT DEAL WITH THIS USER AT ALL COSTS!

Kyle FYI™ - April 28, 2013, 5:53 am

How is this a failed scam? All it seems is that you didn't want to go first so you automatically think its a scam.

Edit: Didn't see he gave you the wrong HF Link, he might have multi accounts though.

?????I??? - April 28, 2013, 5:54 am

^I read it twice to make sure. Its like you instantly panicked that somebody wanted you to go first and made a deal dispute?

Edit: There is no proof of threats either.

Threats at bottom,
+ he linked me to a trusted member (that he said was him)

Natas - April 28, 2013, 5:59 am

He also said his LR account is linked to his card Imfao.

I've seen this user scam multiple people, so in my opinion this is a failed scam attempt.
Since he threatened to hit you offline, or possibly did. Report him. He can get RF and banned for that.

People like him deserve it.

As an fyi:- You can actually use a card on LR if you have a special account.

~Tom~ - April 28, 2013, 6:02 am

Yeah I wouldn't trust him at all, he jacked a Skype which was already jacked and him and his l33t haxor friends said I should be so scared blah blah blah and then he proceeded to hit me and failed, couldn't even get my right ip.

Max™ - April 28, 2013, 6:09 am

Why the hell is my profile here? i don't understand neither..

~Tom~ - April 28, 2013, 6:10 am

He seems mad, he's going to attempt to boot me again.

This might be obvious but when he reads this I'd just like to point out that intact I don't have bt because I'm on my iPhone and if you check the top left corner you can see its O2.

Now he posts, claiming to not know whats going on, he's also silent on Skype ?

But you are connected via WiFi, and your ISP could be BT. He sounds like a skid though, I wouldn't worry. It's funny

However, considering your post and the PM you got, that must mean he is reading this thread as he saw it, but isn't replying to it. Obvious sign of a scammer.

OP.. Can you please clean up your thread a bit and include spoilers to make it look more professional?

Max™ - April 28, 2013, 6:14 am

No i am not going to boot anyone on this community as its against the rules as i posted after which you didnt screenshot : Quote:<http://prntscr.com/12isyi>

Sounds like a faggot already, at least you didn't deal with him op

Huskers - April 28, 2013, 6:52 am

I might be wrong but this look's like a huge misunderstanding. Perhaps his skype got jacked? Have you PMed him about this OP and tried to solve it yet? Try resolving the skype that was messaging you and have him screenshot his IP chicken! See if it really is him.

Sent OP an updated design and layout for this thread. Looks a lot better an more professional now if I do say so myself.

Max - what are you doing? You're making yourself sound more stupid here, and yet you think you put 'people to shame for a living'.. right.
