First of all, your grammar and punctuation is fucking atrocious. Why are you saying "Don't try to be over smart" (which doesn't make any sense, by the way) when you're doing the exact same?

Hypocrite.

I love how your single quotes are being escaped. Leaving your email on a deface is a really, really smart idea.

One line that really stood out to me was: man Don't try to Mass with me i am your dad in Cyber Space and Security

My balls were damaged. I've never cringed so hard in my life.

In future, I'll try not to "mass" with you.

This thread is ridiculous, you're like a mutant idiot.
