My friends and I are about to start a forum.

We have a really good, and unique plan.

We are working on content on daily basis so yeah, we are really serious about this forum.

Anyhow, we don't know how to call it to be honest, so I've decided to make a contest here!

If you post a name that we are going to use, I will send you $5 via PayPal.

Forum is about helping other people, forum filled with all kinds of tutorials, courses and similar!
