Well most of you might know that I live in a 3rd world country, full of political crisis and war problems (Macedonia)

Well she got her Visa approved for a 3 month work in Florida, she is going tomorrow. I am sooooo jealous :D.

Wow, that sounds like a great opportunity for her. Hopefully in the future you could do the same.

That's a pretty fucking dick thing to say, especially considering you get most your shit for free and you don't realize how bad people want to come here.

Tidal Wave - May 13, 2013, 12:39 pm

Right now it's hot as hell in Florida, I was jumped off my dock for about an hour yesterday and now I look like a lobster. I haven't got sun burnt in about 2 years also...

ChineseFountain - May 17, 2013, 11:02 pm

Congratulations to her! I'm from the US and I've been to Macedonia (my mother is from Albania). Beautiful country.
