Thread: EMAIL BOMBER???SKYPE RESOLVER ???AUTOTYPER ???FUN TOOLS

?Ultimo - May 12, 2013, 8:28 pm

Hello HF, I coded a little application that has four options called Ultimo's tools.

Things iv'e added since v1:

- Made the skype resolver more stable
- Made email bomber
- Fixed up some coding issues
- Added an extra help button for the skype resolver

A skype resolver, a text to voice, an email bomber and an autotyper.

They're all very easy to use and have help options.

Enjoy!

Virustotal: 1/46, obviously a false positive, also keep in mind that it says the file is suspicious(not a virus, just suspicious) for the anti virus that detected it.

You're a nice guy that's doing great stuff for the community.

Thanks for all of these tools.

PS. I would work out the design of these items to make them look a little more professional. Also, have you considered making an AIO of it?

Thanks for the feedback, it means a lot.

I would always appreciate someone trying to help me on my projects, I'm not the best with GUI's as you can see.

Thanks though!?

Just curious : What does the help button on the Skype resolver say/do? Mine just freezes the entire program

It has a voice that tells you how to use it, everytime the voice talks it says the program isnt responding, but as soon as the voice stops the program doesnt say it anymore.

The program isnt really freezing, it's just that the voice is talking, wait for the voice to finish mate. :)

Great tools, love em.100 emails to a friend, lulz. But yeah, id love it if the buttons looked cooler or something, also make a fun icon.

Everybody loves fun icons.

This thread should be junked.
