Azura's GFX Portfolio

Hey Guys Welcome to my fortress of graphic design I will update this as much as possible to keep showing off my work I would also like to add that diamonduploads is trying to start a graphics team and I would love to help him I have shown off some work to him and he really likes it. Lately I have not been doing graphics allot because I have had allot of exams and still yet to complete 5 exams in the next month but I want to get back into graphics design as fast as possible. So If you are a decent graphic designer and would be interested in working with other graphic designers then go and check out his post here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3477213>

thanks for visiting check out My Official Portfolio here: <http://azuragfx.daportfolio.com/>

Also if you don't mind I have a YouTube channel that I will be uploading speed arts or tutorials, You can check out here: <https://www.youtube.com/user/ImAzuraHD>

If you want to browse some work below please feel free.

will do man could you suggest an img website that works ?

mhmm it seems even if I try a different hoster it does not work:S

mhmm can someone help me with the photos...

Try using Imgur. You just upload your photos onto Imgur and then you can send people a link to look at them.

Not going to lie, pretty terrible. I can tell you put alot of effort into this, and your headed in the right direction, but keep practicing.

Dang you are amazing would you mind making me a youtube background.

ImAzura - May 18, 2013, 6:43 am

I currently am not doing any GFX for anyone as I am sitting my exams and going to lots of interviews for interactive media in college
