Thread: ajvpot multi-accounting, phishing HF members, is possibly Who?

Mohatu - May 14, 2013, 8:08 am

Hello community.

Be warned about ajvpot (<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=191932>). Whether or not he is Who?, I'll leave up to you, but be warned that he can not be trusted, scams users out of virtual currency, and multiaccounts.

To start off, yesterday avjpot released a link to website allowing you to create your own custom BLC address, as long as it was 40 characters long.

The link to the thread:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3475560>

In case he junks the thread:

I already didn't trust that, as it gives him the ability to store your bloostamp (user + password) on his server. Regardless, some members decided it was safe to use it, including the unfortunate member "Jennifer Lawrence" (<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3478891>).

Jennifer Lawrence posted this thread earlier (<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3478891>) in which he/she mentions that her bloocoins had been stolen. S/he goes on to say that it was a person named "Who?" who stole the coins.

Immediately I thought back to the website to generate your own bloostamp address. Could it be involved?

Jennifer Lawrence has a custom address generated by the site!

Thinking the two might be connected, I did some more research.

Throughout the day, a person named "Who?" has been posting in the Bloocoin IRC chat, not only admitting to stealing the coins, but also to having a "GPU miner", and complaining about being banned because of multiaccounting.

Stealing coins:

GPU Miner:

Ban complaint:

(^ note that ban link goes to Who?'s closed account)

In order to show off his amazing GPU mining speed, he linked us to some website with a graph on it:

The link: http://www.zsnag.com/graph/bloocoin_mycoins-day.png

You know what's funny? ajvpot openly advertises the SAME website on his profile:

In addition, in this thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2508028>

Those graphs look pretty similar, don't they? Oh wait, IT'S THE SAME WEBSITE!

Who?'s Bloostamp graph (http://www.zsnag.com/graph/bloocoin_mycoins-day.png)

[img]http://www.zsnag.com/graph/bloocoin_mycoins-day.png[/img]

Avjpot's thread:

There you have it. Something is clearly not kosher here.

Edit:

Well shit... case closed. Nice job.

FantaŠec - May 14, 2013, 8:17 am

Except for the fact I was in a Skype call with AJVpot until about when he went to sleep last night and since then he has been in school. So I don't think he can be asleep and messaging you lolol.

Leg?nd - May 14, 2013, 8:17 am

Doesn't look like much proof to me, I wouldn't think Who? is that stupid either.

How do you know he really fell asleep?

He is in the same time zone as me, has school, and he sounded tired.

Anarchy - May 14, 2013, 8:19 am

Nope. Who? and Ajvpot are not the same person, if you don't believe me check out #avo . They're simply friends and Ajv allows Ryan to use the website.

And scamming? Stole is more like the word.

Then explain why both members used the same website? :)

kawaii - May 14, 2013, 8:20 am

I've spoken to both a few times in the Root IRC channel and via XMPP and I can assure you they're not the same person.

Daring - May 14, 2013, 8:21 am

That's hilarious

Regardless, virtually no proof. All circumstantial

Stev - May 14, 2013, 8:29 am

We all know Who? likes to multi account a lot, but ajvpot is not Who? ... Maybe he can not be trusted, but he's not Who?.

Even if Ajvpot is not Who?, then he did still help Who? to scam members of their BLC or whatever, since Ajvpot directly advertised that site.

I never denied that did I? He did in fact steal BLC. If you read my entire post you'd see I said this:

Sky - May 14, 2013, 8:58 am

Mohatu, you're a smart member but this thread is pretty darn ludacris. Who? and AjvPot aren't the same person.

As much as I personally dislike Who?, he was pretty talented, and more based in the hacking section, I have never seen Ajvpot in the hacking section, I don't think he has similar knowledge (Not saying he's stupid, just skilled in different areas), but there is no doubt they are 2 different people.

There is a high possibility that it is Julius (Who?). He said that he had 800~ ub3r accounts in his possession, and most of the ones that he has recently used were registered in 2010.

Oh yes, because if he had 800 Ub3r accounts in his possession he would make multiple normal accounts. ?

Like I said, it is what he said, so I wouldn't really believe it either. He is quite a Ryan Cleary fanboy.

I doubt puli, Hycca and other ex-root members would +rep him if it wasn't actually Ryan.

blem - May 14, 2013, 9:30 am

Ryan and Avj are friends. They were both in r00t and I think they knew eachother from there.

Mohatu - May 14, 2013, 9:33 am

Whether or not he is or isn't Who?, clearly something isn't kosher here.

I remain convinced they are one and the same.

Agreed; they're definitely separate people. There's no doubts about that.

Just because Ryan can use the zsnag domain and the graphing system they have doesn't instantly mean he's ajv.

And Ryan compromising one person's account doesn't mean that it was the zsnag generator off the bat (at least, I haven't heard about more than one person getting compromised).

Seems like Ryan just being Ryan.

Agreed its make sense just because a person is using the same shit doesnt really mean shit

ajvpot - May 14, 2013, 3:07 pm

As stated by multiple people before, I'm obviously not Who? and have nothing to do with this. This just looks like a weak attempt at slandering me. I haven't stolen anyone's bloocoins.

Edit: I've taken down the bloocoin graph so Who? can't use it to troll any more.

Klayderpus - May 14, 2013, 7:48 pm

Vouch for this (minus ajv actually being Ryan), lost BLC after generating an address. Luckily what I had on the custom address was only a fraction of my full "fortune."

I had 1703, lost all except for seven as well as unaccounted-for newly generated BLC.

Le Spy - May 14, 2013, 7:52 pm

Here is another thing to note, the avatar for avjpot is also a hacker that plays in the same movie that Who?'s avatar was in. Not proof, but odd.

I'll link to the movie in a moment.

You vouch, yet all you really know is that someone stole your BLC under the name Who?. It most likely wasn't ajvpot(Hell there's even a possibility it isn't whoever this Who? guy is - someone could be impersonating him.)

The fact that Who? was used as a name and the BLC was stolen from an address created with ajvpot's service (which most likely stores all information about the account, thus the "hacker" gaining access) is beyond a coincidence in my opinion.

There was around 6-7 root members with Hackers avatars, I'm assuming they were all Who??

TL;DR:- Always do shit yourself? It's literally a single netcat command away to generate a custom bloostamp, lazy fucks.

Hack The Planet! (Movie was called Hackers)

So the fact that now TWO people were stolen from, both having used ajvpot's service, both seeing similar names in the transaction screens, having someone named Who? spend all day in a chat saying not only that he stole the coins, but also linking to a graph on the same website hosted by ajvpot, is all just a funny coincidence, nothing out of the ordinary? K.

Phizo - May 15, 2013, 1:55 am

They aren't one in the same.

The following quote means nothing.

ajvpot and Who? are friends, it's not unlikely that they both use and advertise a site they manage.

This. By vouch I in no way meant to convey that ajvpot is Who?. I know that they are individual people.
