It was a lucky find haha, i have somewhere around 1,500 accounts that i need to go through and manually check for games and then categorize... I've only been through about 50 so far ? If anyone knows a faster way to do this I would appreciate it :p I gotta do the same thing for another 500 spotify accounts to check for attached payment methods and premium too lol.

Edit for your edit: Origin accounts use the email as the username; so yes, the winners will receive the accounts email and password so that they can log in and download the games.
