Thread: help against cyberbullying please? supercain - May 17, 2013, 7:13 am

Hi,

im a Yahoo user. I like to post comments on the news of that site. However, some time ago, some asshole got angry with one of comments and started to attack me, so i kicked the shit out of him and ridiculed him in public. Only with words, nothing else. However, the guy took it very seriously and got so mad that ever since then he is harassing me by stalking my activity in Yahoo and replying to ALL my comments, several times with a lot harsh language EVERYDAY. I first ignored but its been already like 3 months and he just wont stop. He is obsessed with me and he wont leave me alone.

So i reported him like THOUSAND times to Yahoo, but those lazy bastards havent done ANYTHING about. Its like they dont even bother checking the reports. Its very frustrating so i would like to know if its possible to denounce Yahoo to some authority for allowing and promoting cyber-bullying, since they dont even provide you with the ability to ignore or block troublesome users. The other option is to hack the shit out of this idiot but that seems quite unlikely.

Any suggestions please? Other than quitting Yahoo please, because i have quite a career there and i dont believe the solution to our problems is running away from them.

Thank you.

Jack Daniels™ - May 17, 2013, 7:16 am

Don't hack "the shit" out of the user. That would be immature. Just leave it, he will get bored. It's not really severe cyber bullying, he is just obsessed.

Sommmen - May 17, 2013, 7:21 am leave it alone, tell your parents, confront him with it.

supercain - May 17, 2013, 9:52 am

Thats what i did, but man, this guy is been doing the same thing for over 3 months! The guy is sick and i really dont know if he is going ever to stop.

Grand Pootis - May 17, 2013, 9:54 am

If you're in the same state, most states have stalking statutes that have cyber subsections.

Vendessel - May 17, 2013, 10:07 am

Contact Vendetta... Pm me. They can help, and I can get you in contact with the... Pm me if you need help.

ACIDBERN - May 17, 2013, 10:17 am don't stoop to his level, he'll get bored

but yeah don't do what he does. cant you just make yourself a new account or something?

Prostitute - May 17, 2013, 12:16 pm lel, i live for cyber bullying. shit is so cash

supercain - May 25, 2013, 8:16 pm

Please help with this, this asshole has taken cyber-bullying to a whole new level. Now he created like 10 accounts and uses them to flood every single comment i post and then give them enough thumbs down so my comments get hidden. This guy is sick, he is obsessed with me and doesnt seem to ever stop. Of course, i think he eventually will, but not at least for another 2 or 3 years and thats just way too long. I want to get rid of him now. If i get his IP, is it possible to hack the shit out of him?

Just a Cracker - May 25, 2013, 8:24 pm

Learn to turn the other cheek friend. You'll be a better person in life for it.

RySec - May 25, 2013, 11:04 pm

No, i did it THOUSANDS of times and nothing. They simply dont give a shit. Im on my own.

And no, i told you i just cant ignore it. Imagine someone on this forum is thumbing down all your posts so they get hidden. How can you ignore that? Would you leave the forum?

The guy has no personal knowledge about you right? He's just flaming a user name right? Sorry man but you are lucky until you know what it is like to be cyberbullied by an ex friend who stalks your personal info and gets others involved you haven't experienced serious cyber harassment. Not saying what you are going through isn't annoying but in the larger scheme of cyber harassment it doesn't sound that bad.

Yes I would suggest you leave the forum. I know it's not what you want to hear but it sounds like it is the only way to end this. Or change your yahoo ID. Or try leaving for 6 months so he maybe forgets about you.

supercain - May 26, 2013, 4:13 am

So the answer is to run away from the problems instead of facing them? I dont think so... Anyway, i get his IP, can i do something with it?

Bewbs - May 26, 2013, 4:15 am

Give me his ip il DDos him if you want..

Illuminati - May 26, 2013, 4:15 am

Ignore list => "Ignore anyone who is not in my Yahoo! Contacts."
Problem Solved ?

supercain - May 26, 2013, 4:49 am

Thank you Kristian. I will give it to you. The problem is that he has a dynamic IP so i guess we would need to take action as soon as i get the fresher IP before it changes. What time are you usually available?

Illuminati, as far as i know thats for messenger only and it wont work for the website. There is no option to ignore users or whatsoever. Another Yahoo fail.

Palaski - May 26, 2013, 5:05 am

Just ignore him, And if you see him face to face you can make a police report. You feel threatened don't you?

zork123 - May 26, 2013, 6:44 am you could probably hack him and change his yahoo id and then delete it as for your yahoo account just change to a new yahoo account simple as that hope i helped

supercain - May 26, 2013, 6:48 am

Yeah well, i dont think its enough with deleting his account. He has dozens and he uses all of them to annoy the shit out of me. I want to hack his computer and block him access to Yahoo or make his system crash so i wont see him for a long time. Believe me, this guy is the sickest troll you will ever seen.

SLDOX - May 26, 2013, 4:21 pm

stop being such a pussy man up about it fucking cyber bullying fuck sake deathbyu - May 26, 2013, 7:25 pm

just make a new account if that's a possibility hazardgkt - May 27, 2013, 9:03 am

Why are we telling him idiotic statements such as he can probably "hack" him?

Why not tell this kid HOW to do it?

And even then, I still simply recommend creating another account, problem solved. This isn't rocket science, if you create another account with a different user name you're able to start over. I don't think you needed 3 months to figure this out either man...

supercain - May 28, 2013, 9:10 am

Yeah, thats the solution right there! Just create a new account no matter i lose thousands of my posts (and emails) and start over from zero. As simple as that! What a nice idea! I cant believe i couldnt figure it out myself! Also, since this sick bastard is a stalker chances are he will find out my new account and keep on harassing me but thats no problem at all, because i can just make another account and then another, another and so on, right? come on guys... this is supposed to be a hacking forum, not a how-to-run-away-from-your-problems-like-a-pussy forum... If you cant offer any imaginative and creative solutions then just dont post anything.

1. Start by not pissing people off.
2. Don't ask anyone in here to "Hack" anyone.
3. Realize that people on the internet have nothing better to do. Thats why they are here. Thus leaving them with lots of time to troll you.
4. Learn how to hack and you can rape him all day.
5. Hack the forum, drop the sql users table. Remove name from table. Done.

So you "kicked the shit out of him verbally" - And now he's doing the exact same thing to you, and you're angry? What the fuck did you expect. Don't dish out what you can't take.

You try "hacking the shit" out of that idiot. You're just as much of an idiot as he is.

Fucking ignorance.

Suggestions? block him, move on, and next time don't flame someone and expect them not to flame you back.

Dizzybro6 - May 28, 2013, 1:49 pm

I don't think thumbing down you're comments really classifies as cyber-bullying...

You started with being an asshole to him know he does it to you and you start crying? Just ignore him it's the internet.

MaXoNe - May 28, 2013, 2:33 pm

Buy a gun or carry a knife . World is full of nuts people.

supercain - May 28, 2013, 6:19 pm

Seems like you dont understand the difference between telling somebody off and harassing them. This guy started to insult me from the very beginning, but i trashed him with words only within the same discussion and i won. He couldnt stand i outsmarted him so he got angry and now he is harassing me by stalking me and chasing me around the whole site waiting for me to post something to reply to each one of my comments no matter what i post. So according to your logic its my fault because i didnt let myself get offended and insulted? come on...

Also, im not asking anybody to hack this bastard. All im requesting are simple and practical hints on how to deal with this idiot using some hacking knowledge. After all, isnt that what this forum is supposed to be for? To ask for some help on that topic? Seems its not, because none of you are willing to be helpful at all. So i will look for help somewhere else, thanks for nothing.

NecoArc - May 29, 2013, 1:10 am

This situation is really out of control. As i already said, this troll made many accounts in order to thumb down my comments and get them invisible and guess what? because of my comments being voted negative so many times Yahoo DELETED MY ACCOUNT! Yeah! MINE but not HIS! so i lost all my comments (thousands) as well as all my mails, EVERYTHING!

Make another account you say? I did, and guess what? He found me again in less than 24 hours to resume his harassment. I made another one and yet again. if thats not cyberbullying then tell me what the fuck is?

So i guess for you there is no way to stop this shit-eater other than quitting the internet. Come on, i thought you could do better than that...

supercain - June 7, 2013, 11:54 am

Im not asking anybody to do the dirty job for me, im just asking for some practical hints. I cracked Yahoo's reputation system. It allows you to vote the same comments as many times as you want even from the same account as long as you do it from a different IP everytime. Im using proxies so i can thumb up my comments in order to prevent them to get hidden, and thumb his down so they get hidden. However, this is quite a task considering this bastard posts over 10 replies to each comment i make. I wonder if there is a more automatic way to do this.
