Thread: Web Site Templates - Free & Incredibly Cheap

SIM-1809171 - May 30, 2013, 1:12 pm

Hey Guys! Today I'm offering some web templates that me and my friend have been working on. Some really nice ones at really low prices.

You can view Reeces website -

Rightt.. ---> Here <--- and the downloads page -

--> Hereee <--

Here they are -

1. PlastoDesigns - <http://www.reecemattthews.co.uk/downloads/preview/simple.php>

A nice neat portfolio-themed layout, great for editing to your liking. Use of CSS3 thrown in there as well. I used this for a while. Really easy to edit if you know only a tiny bit of HTML. Check it out.

3. Slide-Folio - <http://www.reecemattthews.co.uk/downloads/preview/slide.php>

A nice, simple template written in HTML, CSS(3) & JQuery. It's all on one page and animates a scroll when viewing seperate parts of the site. I simply cannot put into words how much I love this template. Simple, but in my opinion, really neat. Why not take a look at the demo and give us some feedback? Its yours for..

4. Minecraft-Theme - <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eBgsWmoltOw>

The preview will give away the info. A complete template for minecraft, use of jQuery and CSS3 to a high standard. Upon buying, like all my premium templates, you can request for your content to be added for a little extra. Really nice alternative to those who don't want the extravagant prices of Enjin. Take a look if you like Minecraft!

Price - HackForum Sale! £10. Was £15
