Thread: Selling Fleshlights | Yay or Nay?

Some Australian Kid - May 31, 2013, 1:06 am

Hey guys, so recently I came in possession of some fleshlights, well, let's say, a LOT of fleshlights. If you don't know what they are, then do a quick google search. But anyways, back to the point, I basically have one of every fleshlight currently available on their site.

So, I would just like to know if any of my fellow Hack Forums buddies are interested in buying a brand new, unopened fleshlight! To put a number to my collection, around 24.

I would be willing to sell them for 50-70% off their Retail price, perhaps even more. I can ship worldwide, that's not a problem. So yeah, basically let me know if you're interested & I'll set up a more HQ post with pricing, postage, individual products, etc.

Luke.

Thats gonna be a weird ass shop you're gonna run. If they were obtained legitimately i don't see why you cant sell these... things.

Hehehe, that it will be indeed! It's probably going to be suprising to see if members are actually interested!

Definitely carded.

I'll write a thorough apology if you take a picture of all of your stock with a timestamp.

They still could be carded/fraudulently obtained nonetheless.

They're not carded.

It's quiet a funny story of how I got them. Let's just say, there are benefits of having a Mother whom works in the Adult pleasure business. :grate:

Any pictures yet? I'm very curious to see. If not that then a link to the website so we can least see what they look like.

OP, no one is gonna want to vouch on your thread that they got their fleshlight(Unless they're joking) It'll make them look lonely people who sit at their computer all day. Then again I heard fleshlights are way better than your hand.

Well good luck.

I would do a vouch copy, as, I don't care what people think of me, however, I don't give my address out to randoms.

What's the real problem with them being carded..? Even if they were I don't think it would affect the buyer.

EDIT: I get it now thanks to He@dshot

I guess he wouldn't first ship it to him and THEN to us, but directly to us, if carded ^^

Ohhhh, I wasn't thinking of that. I was assuming he already had them at his house.
