If you were contributing to the community you wouldn't be hinting to getting people to post on the thread to get it (which has been a rule for some time now), you'd post a download link, otherwise this a low quality post.

PsyCD58 - June 4, 2013, 4:14 am

Gimme! Gimme! I got scammed and lost $100 and now I got to exact my revenge!

Thread trashing for no reason? And i am not hinting for people to post. They have to give me there HWID so they can login...If i put the DL in the post then nobody could login to it.
