My answer for myself and my family would be Yes because we all own registered guns. I have a .30 rifle next to me as we speak. The other ones are locked up and secured. I also have tons of knives and swords because I collect them. Would you guys be safe?

Klonoa - June 6, 2013, 8:18 pm

Yes probably. I would lock myself in an underground bunker.

If anyone is able to get in, I'll let them kill me.

Snoop Lion - June 6, 2013, 8:20 pm

I'm pretty if this happened most houses would come with some sort of security system or bunkers. I would probably get a bunch of coffee and camp in there with someone always watching the only door with some sort of automatic gun.

Skorp - June 6, 2013, 8:21 pm

Of course because that is when i'm at my best. ?

Well, apparently, the government wants people to kill other people because in the trailer, there's a quote like "Remember that you're helping your government" or something like that so I doubt they'd approve of the aforementioned attachment to houses.

Honestly, its only one night. I'd just take my family into a ridiculously deep, secured bunk with a few guns, a shit ton of ammo, and a machete. I then would prompt to sit to one side of the door, with my family behind me and wait til' some fucker tried to break in. Simple.

People who answer 'yes' because they own guns, think about this. Crime is legal. Who's to say people won't have explosives or bigger guns?

Small, and large militias would form (mostly including ex-military/armed forces/marines) who would band together to attack the government.

Not to mention that many people in the government would most likely leave the White House, Pentagon, etc. in order to protect themselves, and some might even join the militia(s).

It's funny because there could be a gang of 10 with bats that would take you over any purge day. You having a gun means nothing.

The Purge was a brilliant film. I went to watch it at the cinema on UK release date, and it was brilliant. One of the best films I've seen in a very long time. With regards to staying alive... I'm not sure. I suppose if such a thing did exist, I would find some kind of access to guns and probably haul up in my house for the night with trusted friends. Don't think we'd get much bother.

(Jun 6, 2013 08:30 PM)Morchid Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Well I'm sure if the Purge was real that most people wouldn't go around killing each other and that we would most likely attack the government.

The film story was that Government Class 9 agents were protected and were immune from the Purge. So, as much as you'd like to try, I believe you would still get into trouble for killing those officials. Besides... you'd have to get to them first. ?

I don't know about others, but personally I've held a ASP pistol with eight-round magazine I believe. A bullet in the stomach/chest area will drop you, no matter how big you are. I'm pretty sure myself with an eight-round magazine (providing I had other magazines available to reload, of course), would easily be able to defend myself against a group of ten with baseball bats.

syrenen11 - June 6, 2013, 10:56 pm

Well, if we had security measures like they did in the previews, then, I'd be set. Family friend has enough weapons/ammo to literally supply a small militia. And I have a few weapons of myself. So, other than that, I should be set. And family friend has a walk in freezer and cooler in the basement with enough food stored to last quite a few months if you made something new everyday.

If not with the security measures, would be a bit hard because in my area, most people have a weapon of some sort or something more.

Can someone please elaborate?

Thank you!! love how you didn't read a single reply.

It's a fucking movie.

Premortal - June 7, 2013, 6:10 pm

Yep, I'd just drive extremely far out into the desert and hang out until it was over. I'd probably bring a book to entertain me and some weapons just to be safe.

Vicellus Drum - June 7, 2013, 6:41 pm

I'd last for all of a month.

We have a "saferoom" that locks from the inside... Full titanium steel doors and walls all around with oxygen tanks inside.

I believe I have about 50 gallons of water inside, and about a month worth of canned food.

Yeah, paranoia strikes this house quite hard.

+Cloud - June 7, 2013, 8:02 pm

EVERYONE IS SAYING THEY WOULD HAVE A SAFE HOUSE!

WHO THE FUCK HAS AN UNDERGROUND BUNKER AT YOUR HOUSE!

I don't have an underground bunker, but I have a saferoom on my 2nd floor...

Hamware - June 8, 2013, 3:01 am

No I probably wont, I would probably lock all my doors even setup some traps if some people try to brake into my house. I would obviously have some weapons, like a baseball bat or some stuff like this. But I'm a pussy, I would probably not survive or if I do, then it's luck.

Max Mouse - June 8, 2013, 6:12 am

I would probably hide out in some desert somewhere with some pet dogs protecting me...

Roxox1 - June 8, 2013, 10:38 am

I live in the UK, so yeah..

Worst thing I'm going up against is someone with a can opener..

Tedeschi - June 8, 2013, 11:30 am

I'd probably just stay up in my room posting on HF or watching videos as my dog guards the door. Since I'm in the UK I'd probably survive.

?NoShame - June 8, 2013, 1:16 pm

Nah I'd probably die the minute it starts, I have only 1 gun and 1 airsoft gun :P

Throne - June 8, 2013, 1:50 pm

Yes, I surely would. Rob a gun store. Rape as many hot bitches as I can, just in case I don't make it, I would like to get laid before death.

I would probably be safe

Astrogen - January 27, 2019, 10:09 pm

Yes, because I would pray that The Purge would get canceled.

SORRIE - January 27, 2019, 10:47 pm

Probably not, I now own a gun but live in a state where roughly 1 in 5 people do. Maybe if i holed up in my house but the real fucked up people would around firebombing every house they could and shooting the people who run out so I have strong doubts

Ravioli - January 28, 2019, 12:57 pm

I'm too much of a pussy to enjoy a purge. I'd just hide under a rock else - January 28, 2019, 10:24 pm

If the purge were to happen I think I might survive. I wouldnt go out to "purge" just be stay at home til its over. We have guns at home too so, if things happen we should be fine truepost - January 29, 2019, 7:26 am

Best believe! Free loving dude or not, nobodies killing me or my family without a fight! I'd be sure to be as secure as possible though as to avoid any confrontation. Would be strapped with a shotty the whole time though.
