Thread: [\[RELEASE\] flAming Crypter v1.0 \[FUD SCANTIME+RUNTIME - WORKS IN XP/VISTA/7\]](#)

flAmingw0rm - April 7, 2010, 5:47 am

Hello ,

I am releasing a free FUD (Runtime+Scantime) crypter made it VB.NET. Before saying it doesn't work, make sure to check if you have installed .NET framework on your computer. I'd like to say thanks to t0fx, the design of crypter, source code and RunPE are made by him. I just edited some things and added EOF support.

Screenshots:

Spoiler (Click to View)

Features:

- File Crypter (FUD Runtime+Scantime in Windows XP, Vista, 7)
- File Binder
- File Cloner
- Icon Changer
- EOF (End Of File)
- File Pumper
- Custom Injection
- 2 Different encryptions (RC4, TripleDES) it generates a new key each time you start the application.
- Anti's (Anti-Sandboxie, Anti-Ollydbg and more...)

Password encrypted with: GILA7 > ATOM-128 > BASE-64 > HAZZ-15 > ZARA-128.

You have to decrypt the password this way: ZARA-128 > HAZZ-15 > BASE-64 > ATOM-128 > GILA7.

Note: If you can not decrypt the password, minimum posts for me to send you the password is 100.

Tested and works with:

- iStealer

- CyberGate
- Cerberus
- Spy-Net
- PoisonIvy

Note: Do not move any files in the folder, just let it as it is.

Note: To change the icon successfully do the following:

1. Tick the box, choose your icon.
2. Untick the box, crypt it.
3. Now, drag your crypt server out of the folder and rename it, your icon should change.

Report date: 2010-05-19 20:51:20 (GMT 1)

Detection rate: 0 on 20 (0%)

Status: CLEAN

Instructions: Copy the file and paste it in the folder called 'res' in the crypter folder. Example
C:\Program Files\flAming Crypter\res\replace in this folder.

Once again, I would like to say thanks to t0fx for the great crypter. He wrote the RunPE himself, the source code and design!

If you have problems decrypting the password, just reply here and I will help you.

Hope you like it, post your feedback what should I add in next version etc.

Thanks,
flAmingw0rm

thats because small size? :O

im using 1.2 because other versions are fucked with 25 limits

kingpin69 - April 7, 2010, 7:21 am good looking crypter, I'm sure this will come in very handy. Just a quick question, do you always have to use EOF when crypting cybergate servers?

Cheers.

intoxication - April 7, 2010, 7:21 am ok here goes.

64bit win 7 with .net framework tried crypting cybergate 1.04.8 with EOF enabled and tripple DES, no luck same thing again with RC4 and had some more success, but file size was nearly doubled

Dark Comet, doesnt work with EOF option but RES it seems to do fine, only downside is avira detection and the error from cybergate when attempting to crypt was "index was outside the bounds of the array."

btw ... that microsoft SAM scared the absolute shit out of me haha ionutz1122 - April 7, 2010, 7:24 am

I used it with a Cybergate 1.04.8 server , my crypter option where just "change icon" , "Enable anti's" and RC4 encryption. I have Windows 7 32bit. The crypted server is working fine and the computer doesn't seem to become laggy. Also my original server is not compressed with UPX and doesn't have any icon. I scanned my encrypted server a minute ago and was 100% clean , maybe the icon triggers Avira detection.

CyberGate doesn't need EOF support. Untick it and try again. To bypass Avira, change the icon.

That's the assembly. I've changed it to HJT, so less antivirus softwares detect it.

I had the same problem , I think the Windows caches the icon somewhere if the filename is the same. I changed the filename and the icon refreshed to the actual one.

If so, try to use an icon of HJT or some famous software. Firstly, get the icon with ResHack and then use ResHack again to change the icon of your crypted file.

What are you trying to crypt the server.exe or the RAT? O.o

And also, are you sure you setup it right? There must be a problem with your pc or something. I am on Windows XP SP3 and I've tested loads of servers crypted with my crypter and nothing like this happened to me. Post a HJT log in HJT section.

Just install Sandboxie and run it sandboxed.

If it is your own RAT, then you can open it on yourself if you pop-up on your RAT, right click on your server > Server Options > Uninstall and it will be removed.

Google each encryption and it'll link you to the decrypter.

If you stay active a while and increase your post count I will PM you the password.

Until then, try to decrypt it yourself. www.cryo.com might help you.

Thanks,

LMAOOO If you use prorat DO NOT TRY IT ON YOURSELF IF YOU ENCRYPT IT WITH THIS LOL!!!! It triggered a loop in my laptops startup which was literally impossible to remove, everything you clicked would close like the start menu, and other things. The mouse would switch back between hour glass and the regular pointer over and over again, and windows would flash light blue and dark blue, it was pretty funny but it got annoying and i ended up reinstalling windows on it

As far as I know, to crypt ProRat servers you will need a .dll stub.

Can you tell me how to decrypt? I mean, if you could help me get access to the crypter. But I don't want the password directly, that would ruin the fun :)

Edit: Haha I found out! :) I used this website to decrypt the password: <http://www.cryo.com/> go down and find the first decryption stuff.. But is there any program to do this?

flAmingw0rm - April 10, 2010, 5:00 am

Ok, i'll explain how to decrypt the password.

Go to www.crypto.com.

There are many types of encryptions/decryptions. We need to decrypt the password.

You have to decrypt the password this way: ZARA-128 > HAZZ-15 > BASE-64 > ATOM-128 > GILA7.

Now, let's start

With the password I posted in the code:

Code 415 434 377 394 355 382 414 366 380 412 420 380 355 364 377 359 430 413 363 432 363
420 414 366 431 420 377 429 377 423 401 423 434 432 434 401 415 368 420 396 433 399 418
415 355 366 390 377 430 413 363 368 360 382 414 421 377 399 363 380 355 432 398 368 434
413 363 413 360 377 377 428 434 399 386 387 380 423 414 427 434 395 431 411 377 420 434
410 400 419 418 434 377 429 355 401 434 432 367 368 433 382 386 359 386 434 433 365

You decrypt this with ZARA-128, then the decrypted pass u get from decrypting, decrypt it with HAZZ-15 and so on..

sujeeth - April 10, 2010, 5:04 am hope i cud get the pass ! :D

I'm pretty sure that there's a problem with the Custom process injection feature. It's not a fault on your end the same problem is in t0fx's original source that he posted.

Quote:      If CheckInject.Checked Then
             processZ = TextEnc.Text
             Else
             processZ = "own"
             End If
```

Should be:

```
Quote:      If CheckInject.Checked Then
             processZ = TextProc.Text
             Else
             processZ = "own"
             End If

Guys, really... As Flame took time to make the thread, take time to read it.
The new stub is just beneath it all.

And Flame the icon changing worked, thanks tested with new STUB and its FUD ^^.

FlamingWorm

Thanks a lot, decrypted it and am trying it out.. was just wondering if it works with cybergate 1.04.8 and with windows 7 x64 cuz on my first try i sent it and the person says he got the file and ran it but nothing happned and all but the server didnt appear on my cybergate. I sent it to him via mediafire but without a zip or rar and using the icon changer (no bind or clone) and followed the icon change instructions (click browes and unclick) on Others i just enabled antis and on encryption i used RC4. Am i doing everything right?

Well, you didn't bind it so, nothing should happen, if the victim opens it.

If its not binded but just crypted should the server run anyways??? i was testing it on another computer so i was expecting him to open it and i would get the server on cybergate.

Framed - April 13, 2010, 8:21 am

Try infecting yourself, and see what happens, you can always clean the infection after you tested it by using anti-viruses, or posting a HijackThis log on the forum.

How do i have to setup the Crypter for Cybergate?

I tried it with eof, without eof and with both of the encryption methodes but it leeps ending up in restarting the process over and over and spamming my pc (when i open the crypted file)

davido131 - April 13, 2010, 2:09 pm

So this doesn't work on 64bit pc's? And do I have to choose any special setting for my Cybergate Server?

And what is EOF? And is it dangerous to use?

Best crypter Ive ever seen for free btw

Use a ResHacker, or the file clone that came with the crypter, but the file clone is only for the file, you would want it to look identical towards.

Is there some reason for this not working with a java drive-by? When i upload and run the server on a previous infected victim, it works fine, but when a new computer opens the exe in a java drive-by it doesn't.. I know my java drive-by is set up correctly, cause i've used it with another crypter before.

Im using Cybergate 1.04.8, which i have mixed experiences with. Do anyone have suggestions for a more stable server which i can rely on when testing further?

Just wanted to comment again to say.

1. Password is easier than you guys think, but a bit of effort into it, ive never decrypted anything in my life and using his hints and a bit of effort i got it done
 2. The crypter works perfectly with cybergate 1.04.8 server, i used it with icon change and bind and it works beautifully except for some little things which apearantly happen because the user doesnt have the .net framework thing
 3. Its FUD and free which makes this amazing
 4. If anyone can please +rep on flamingworm because he has done a favor he didnt need to and has helped out a lot of people.

What is the purpose of encrypting the password to just turn around and send it to anyone who cant figure it out? I noticed someone said they needed the password and you said you PM'd them. I dunno to me just seems as tho its defeating the purpose of encrypting it in the first place.

shrugs Well, in any case I appreciate you releasing it. Just hope it stays FUD for awhile.

Doesn't work with Metus...but then there is really no runtime crypter that does, that I know of.

Awesome upload nonetheless. Pass only takes a couple of minutes to break if you're not retarded, but it should deter skids from this awesome crypter.

minipunch - April 19, 2010, 4:11 pm

I tried opening it and it said "Index was outside bounds of array"...

Topper - April 19, 2010, 4:12 pm seriously, i have never decrypted a message ever, and i got it in like 2 minutes. its not hard some people are just stupid.

anyway, it doesn't work with Cerberus on Win7 64 bit. Double click done.exe and nothing happens. but AVG doesn't detect it! haha

EDIT: also doesn't work with cybergate, i clicked done.exe and it went into an infinite loop

Download the latest stub, sir.

People under 100 posts, don't bother asking for the password. Either at least get some rep or don't even ask.

Before I was gonna post anything I wanted to try it on my cybergate server. It said it was crypted, but when I scanned with antivirus after, it detected it. However, there was an icon with the playboy bunny that appeared in your crypters folder titled done.

Is that the crypted server? and do I just need to rename and send? or did I do something wrong completely?

Not all the RATs need EOF. Only Bifrost needs EOF as far as I know.

However, I am going to update the stub this weekend when I get back from school.

And leethacking has been closed.

Winini.exe is the stub.

Here is how executable crypters work:

- 1) The actual processor commands of a protected binary are crypted/obscured/munged whatever.
- 2) When the protected application first starts, a small decrypter stub is first run that restores all of the original processor commands for the executable in memory.
- 3) Finally, the decrypter stub ends and transfers execution to the original entry point (OEP) and the program runs normally. So, basically the crypter's that have in-built stubs gets detected very fast, the others take some time to get detected.

Also you can modify the stub once it gets detected by changing the entry and exit points.

davido131 - April 23, 2010, 6:01 am

Thanks for the share. Great job with the pass, but i don't think that you should even give it freely to whoever has more than 100 posts. It is quite easy to figure it out. Google is a great friend :)
Anyway, thanks again!

flAmingw0rm - April 23, 2010, 11:12 am

You're right, n00bz0r. I'm tired of leechers who scan on VirusTotal as well, but when you encrypt your password they won't be able to get it. And I don't think 100+ posts members will scan it on VT. If I see someone doing it, I will increase the requirements.

Hey, I opened your file and i opened task manager cuz nothing was showing up and it said MrT.exe and MrTstub.exe so i was like WTF? and i deleted that off task manager. Now every time i click open it says, "The application failed to initialize properly (0xc0000135). Click on OK to terminate the application." I just formatted my computer but before that it worked fine.

No, not really.....

see, i changed the assembly of the crypted file from "HiJack This" to NOTHING (just to check) and the scan showed that it was only detected by one...

It requires .NET framework 2.0 to run the crypted file on the victim's pick. (You may have higher version as well.. but the lowest is 2.0)

Too bad that this way you won't learn anything from the process. I would suggest to study each kind of encryption and decrypt manually. This way you get and idea from what every kind of encryption does. Wiki is a great friend also!

The link doesnt download for me. I have shut MBAM down as I thought it would be a blocker but still no results

Viraavy - May 3, 2010, 7:13 am

It doesnot work on istealer 6.0. I have installed .net framework.

again and again. virus total scan. -_- flAmingw0rm - May 19, 2010, 11:55 am

New FUD stub added!

Download link:

<http://www.multiupload.com/UUCQX3DIW1>

Can be found in the first thread also.

I hope people won't scan it on VirusTotal so it would stay FUD longer.

Enjoy.

70inc - May 19, 2010, 1:06 pm

Finally. you did it again. Was waiting for a new stub.

Thanks man.

Edit:

When trying to run the crypted server, I get this error:

 JIT Debugging *****

To enable just-in-time (JIT) debugging, the .config file for this application or computer (machine.config) must have the jitDebugging value set in the system.windows.forms section. The application must also be compiled with debugging enabled.

For example:

<configuration>

When JIT debugging is enabled, any unhandled exception will be sent to the JIT debugger registered on the computer rather than be handled by this dialog box.

Edit: my bad multiupload wasn't but # is thanks

flAmingw0rm - May 20, 2010, 12:06 am

You need to put it in your /res/ folder plus you will need .NET framework.

Antroxent - May 20, 2010, 2:38 am

Icon changing doesn't seem to work. I followed your instructions and it doesn't change. =/

Nice program, man.

As I P.M.ed you the pass is too easy to figure out.

And it's not totally F.U.D. but it makes it less chance to detect so It's a very good job anyway :)

Thanks for sharing it :D

Try only crypting your file.

Don't use the binder.

The same error happens to me with every file I try to crypt . No other options checked , just file to crypt and RC4 encryption . Tried EOF on/off , RC4/TripleDES . No luck . I'm using Windows 7 32bit . Your crypter allways worked fine for me till the latest stub.

for all noobs (which iam:D) this maybe help you to decrypt the password <http://www.cryo.com/>
decrypt password in that order ZARA-128 > HAZZ-15 > BASE-64 > ATOM-128 > GILA7

If you succeed you will see meaningful text, which is password.

if it is somehow against the rules that I like this advice, so please delete this post

Me too, say us with that language cryp' you have used please :). I don't know anything in encryption. But I am doing research.

And why have you given "GILA7 > ATOM-128 > BASE-64 > HAZZ-15 > ZARA-128" if we used : "ARA-128 > HAZZ-15 > BASE-64 > ATOM-128 > GILA7"

I'm confused, sorry.

I decrypted the password and got the program

However, this crypter make FUD file but disable the virus functioning as well, what the hell

:Neo: - June 9, 2010, 6:23 am pass pls ??

how to decrypt

snoopy95 - June 9, 2010, 10:43 pm

Enter to this site www.crypto.com and decrypt :

You have to decrypt the password this way: ZARA-128 > HAZZ-15 > BASE-64 > ATOM-128 > GILA7.

JIT Debugging

To enable just-in-time (JIT) debugging, the .config file for this application or computer (machine.config) must have the jitDebugging value set in the system.windows.forms section. The application must also be compiled with debugging enabled.

For example:

<configuration>
  <system.windows.forms jitDebugging="true" />
</configuration>
```

When JIT debugging is enabled, any unhandled exception will be sent to the JIT debugger registered on the computer rather than be handled by this dialog box.

Anyways, to those who can't decrypt with their mind (aka people who aren't like me). Use www.crypto.com

I spent about 1,5 mins decrypting this password. You ve just spent more, typing these noobish posts.

Good luck -.-

Disable Avast for 1 min. and set the folder you saved it in to exception in avast.

i cant do the password thing :S

first you decrypt here : http://www.cryo.com/eng_zara128p.php then you go back on <http://www.cryo.com/> scroll down to the decryption section and you'll go on with the next decrypt method untill you get a readable password ;) Next time use your brain, read the first post and google e.g. decryption online service.

JIT-foutopsporing

Als u JIT-foutopsporing wilt inschakelen, moet in het configuratiebestand voor deze toepassing of computer (machine.config) de waarde jitDebugging in het gedeelte system.windows.forms zijn ingesteld. De toepassing moet ook zijn gecompileerd terwijl foutopsporing was ingeschakeld.

Bijvoorbeeld:

<configuration>
  <system.windows.forms jitDebugging="true" />
</configuration>

Wanneer JIT-foutopsporing is ingeschakeld, worden onverwerkte uitzonderingen naar het JIT-foutopsporingsprogramma gestuurd dat op de computer is geregistreerd en worden niet door dit dialoogvenster verwerkt.

deadlyjinx - June 27, 2010, 3:16 am new stub didn't work on my spynet server (win7 32-bits).

Still a noob, so I don't know if i did something wrong.
Old stub worked but it's not FUD.

Thank you anyway.

Decrypting password was very fun! ?

Decrypt the pass is very easy. I'm a noob too and i decrypt it in 3minutes (2 of them reading how to decrypt).

It's an exercise, at least for me. And in the process i learn something.

Go to <http://www.cryo.com> and you will easily solve the code.

This crypter fucked up my computer, when I went to bind my server with another file, it spammed the memory, (4GB) locked up the computer and spammed me with Errors 2 times I had to restart.

Maybe its a coding error with windows 7, the first cryption worked fine but i didnt bind it with anything.

No because my screen turns black

I crpy the file, I create the 'Done' File when I double click it my mouse gets a loading icon, everything is laggy, I tried to do CRTL+ALT+DEL to stop the process but can't even do that.

After 10 minutes I came back, I got a bunch of 'Systemstopmemory32' weird messages, options were continue or Quit, kept pressing quit and the message didnt go away, looked like there were hundreds of em behind each other.

Its probably my fault though somehow.
