Hi HF,
this is a simple program to lock you'r folder (change the folder extension to a protected explorer extension)

If AirCode made this, why are you reposting this?

i make a new one, and add more protected explorer Class ID.

I have also sent a request for permission for this release.

Nice UI. But the front end looks much like the original?

I make it from scratch but use the code from AirCode.

and I add more Class ID features.

hmm sorry if my english is really bad ?

You just contradicted yourself. All you did was make a hideous UI.

I am fine with people building upon my work and giving credits as OP has kindly done. I do not however endorse this product in any way, shape or form due to the fact that my original code has been manipulated and therefore out of my control.

Very Nice Lock Folder source love your version as well

iStalker - June 24, 2013, 6:23 pm

Looks pretty neat. Thanks for sharing it mate.

Very nice, I wanted to make some sort of folder locking software, different to yours though. One that you can explore the files inside the program rather than the folder being visible at all.

my friend told me there is a way to hide a folder via Registry, but he did not want to talk about it ???

Easily reversed by changing permissions with an admin account.

Hitokiri - March 16, 2015, 8:39 am

Locked Folder Easily unlocked when you rename it :P
