So your selling something worth $3/M for $1/M... Sure I guess

Lolland123 - June 17, 2013, 9:22 am

So $200 and you won't go first, you won't do increments. Sounds legit, Good luck to the buyer O.o

P aris - June 17, 2013, 9:23 am

Use an MM and i'll buy all of this right now.

Firex1 - June 17, 2013, 9:23 am

I would buy it all, though I wont go first. This seems sketchy. you could earn $200 more by selling it at the normal price?

This seems a bit sketchy when i ask for increments he never replied... can you post a picture of the 200m

P aris - June 17, 2013, 9:28 am

Like I previously posted. I will buy it all if you use an MM. PM me and stop ignoring legitimate buyers.

Currently trying to make a deal with us doing increments...

Lets hope this works out.

User not willing to sell this in increments so we weren't able to deal.

Good luck with sales buddy.

Lolland123 - June 17, 2013, 9:56 am

I can guarantee this is a scam, Do not deal without a middleman.

ConnorMcG - June 17, 2013, 9:58 am

I recommend using a middleman before dealing with anyone in large amounts like this.

Firex1 - June 17, 2013, 1:25 pm
