Thread: Change the Day Z section to an Arma section \(or add an ArmA section\)

Charmz - June 20, 2013, 5:16 pm

And make a dayz sub forum in it? Arma is an awesome game and with Arma 3 coming out I think there would be a lot of discussion about it. And besides, dayz IS a mod for Arma. I understand that the stand-alone is coming out, but thats what the dayz sub forum would be for. Opinions?

The thing is, I think it would be appropriate if the section was called ArmA and there was a DayZ prefix/subforum.

Darkwin - June 21, 2013, 12:28 am

Exactly what i was saying ^ However i think it may have been purposely created that way because DayZ does plan on coming out with an standalone game or so i heard.

I believe that ArmA is more popular than DayZ, though. Tbh, DayZ seems to be dying out (don't quote me on that) and with ArmA 3 coming out soon I think ArmA will even increase in popularity. I know I would post a lot in the ArmA section and I know a lot of people on HF that play ArmA as well. Why not a DayZ and an ArmA section?

Exact - June 23, 2013, 7:03 pm

DayZ standalone is coming out soon, so there will be lots of new topics, and so those mixing with Arma topics since ARMA 3 is coming would be confusing. I support this idea.

iHaX™ - June 23, 2013, 7:08 pm

I think there should be a prefix for "Mod", and "Standalone". ArmA should be under the FPS section.

I totally agree with this. Sounds like the perfect solution. ArmA deserves a section, especially with all the modding and teamwork involved with it.

Batmayne - June 23, 2013, 9:19 pm

I agree with Charmz. DayZ is just a mod, while Arma is the full game. I think that DayZ should have a subforum or a tag, and Arma should be the title of the forum.

Trafz - June 23, 2013, 9:41 pm

DayZ won't be a mod for long so no, it shouldn't be a sub forum for Arma.

AlbinoShadow - June 25, 2013, 1:01 am

Please link ArmA threads. I doubt there are enough to create its own section. DayZ is not dead yet. The standalone will be a huge hit, I'm expecting it to be as successful if not more successful than the mod itself. If there are enough threads about ArmA though, then making its own section would be appropriate.

Revenge - June 25, 2013, 1:13 am

I don't think there's enough activity of either at the minute to be honest. When you search for Arma, you get: notice that half of them are in the marketplace too. Fair enough, you get less for DayZ on search but if there's a new version coming out it might rise activity again.

Okay but I've wanted to make posts about Arma, but didn't know where to post them. I'm sure if there was an ArmA section people would post in it.

You could make them in the computer and online gaming section located here;

The point is that if there was one dedicated section for ArmA it would be a lot easier to discuss. ArmA is a very vast game, I think it deserves its own section.

I disagree. There are not enough posts and if you even do a simple search all of the results you get are about DayZ. Literally all of the results posted from Revenge's search were DayZ related (selling ArmA keys is a well-known way to bypass bans in DayZ while script-hacking).

I support this suggestion.

ARMA 3 FTW!

The thing is that there is not enough posts.

We all think that some games deserves their own subforum. However how many posts are there for the games?

Anyway there should be some changes for the gaming tab because of inactivity in some of the subforum. So instead of renaming sections there should rather be a bit less sections, with more prefixes.

RDCA - June 27, 2013, 2:12 am

A general rule of thumb; if there isn't 100 threads about discussion of it, then it doesn't have enough activity to become a section. Also DayZ might experience a pretty big surge in activity soon enough.

And obviously, theres way more threads about it then that. At least 100. Not to mention that if a section was added it would promote a lot of discussion of it. It's a very popular game and a lot more people play it on here then you think.

Hyped1337 - July 7, 2013, 12:28 pm

Meh, I support Charmz. Oh well my opinion means nothing here :D

I don't play Arma or Dayz (I own them) often but ARMA Does need a section and DayZ NEEDS to be a sub section, it is a mod of it after all.

I also agree that if it would be made people would start posting in it.

Plunder - July 7, 2013, 12:33 pm

Their isn't a need for it imo..Unless I'm missing more arma threads then day z in the section.

Why would someone post an arma thread in the dayz section?

Just suggest a prefix (if there isn't one).

To create a section. you must find at least 100 "recent" threads and post them here for Omniscient to review.

This has been suggested and denied multiple times.
