1. Link to the scammer's profile. This is to prevent confusion if a username change occurs.

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1743723>

2. Post any images/screenshots that you can provide as evidence of the scam. Best option is to use the spoiler tags for images.

Here the link where he says he couldn't do the survey and offered me $1 but I denied because I have a sales thread if he wishes to pay for it.

User is using my work without paying.

Here is the sales Thread; <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2994700>

I then made a thread to get it for free only if it's downloaded from my LINK. If you look correctly we aren't in the Free and Give away Section. But in Referral section.

Here is the Thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3547105>

To Recap: User is using my GFX without downloading it from my LINK or Paying for it.

I have a sales Threads which he can pay for it or my Thread to get it free from filling a survey to then unlock the download file.

He admitted that he did not Paid nor filling a survey thus me making this scam report.

This Thread will be kept open until user remove my GFX from his threads/signature or pay me to use it.

It is not my fault he is giving away his graphics he also charges for.

This is a bad attempt to try and squeeze $2 from me.

You admit nobody downloaded your file. You say you never gave him the file. From that, I can gather that he just edited the picture you freely and openly displayed within your thread, and edited it for his own purposes. Which anyone can easily within the span of about 5 seconds. He didn't scam you anything. You seriously felt the need to create a scam report for this? You're making yourself look foolish.

Because he posted the .gif image within his thread. You too can go to the thread, find the link, save the image, throw some random font on there, and BAM you're done. However, expect a scam report to be opened on you for this (lol). That being said, maybe I'm just not familiar with qualifications for GFX scam reports. In all seriousness, it's $2..

MHC, there seems to be a misunderstanding. He offered a price and he clicked quite a few surveys. Isn't the point of a survey to allow a download upon completion.

It isn't fair to expect one over another when he did the requested.

The main piece of evidence necessary, is the evidence that shows "he" did not complete even one survey.

This isn't a scam report. This is mistreatment.

If you desire, you could file a DMCA claim, but it would be rather pointless.

It doesn't matter if his thread says free. If it is in the referral section then it is only free if you do what is required aka survey/signing up/etc.

People dogging him opening a report?

Hell, dog the person who couldn't complete the survey which was agree'd to be done to obtain the product in question.

If you don't follow through on your end but get the product anyways, you scammed him.

You have no rights to use it and you are nothing but a thief.

End. Of. Story.

Makes you no better than skids on here that sell copy/paste programs.

Grin - June 21, 2013, 4:11 pm

Let's have this scenario.

Given that the link does not allow a download, that means the link is broken or malfunctioning? Why should members do more than one survey?

Given this is true.

Quote: It doesn't matter if his thread says free. If it is in the referral section then it is only free if you do what is required aka survey/signing up/etc.

Then the one click rule should be expected. After all, it's one download link, is it not?

You did a free giveaway in the referral section what cant you understand?

Due to advice given to me in pm's and on this thread i retract my offer to even pay you for anything.

Please leave this thread open for all to see, Thanks/

If his thread is in the referral section, it doesn't matter if the thread says free, he can make a referral mandatory.

If it's in the giveaway section, doing so would result in a warning and the thread being moved.

If it is in the referral section, expect a survey, it is common sense.

This is like the person who spilled coffee on themselves at McDonald's and then sued them for it not saying it was hot.

Lack of common sense should not be a way to swindle people out of work.

For some reason, some people win cases as such.

In such an instance, who is right? It is arguable both ways, as with this thread.

It isn't my fault he posted FREE.

I tried to do 17 surveys and only when I got fed up with trying to get the file did I offer to pay him for it. Which he then proceeded to try and commit highway robbery by wanting me to pay 5x as much as he would have gotten if his links even worked.

No, I can't and this is no different.

You keep bringing up your paid sales thread.. what does that have to do with anything?

This is about your FREE thread giving it away for FREE (without cost or payment)

Im not stupid enough to sell something and give it away at the same time.

You keep changing stuff up.. First you said the design cost $15. Then $5. Then $2. Now $30.

I am not a 12 year old kid, I am a grown ass man and far from stupid, you cannot manipulate me or try to fool me like you can a child.

So again i ask. Why are you demanding i pay you for something thats free (without cost or payment). You keep avoiding this.

Let me also clarify what i said earlier. If you only had a paid sales thread (and it is sales not sells like you keep spelling it) then this would be legit as i didnt pay for it. But you instead have a free thread which is where i got it from.

There is two road to get my files:

1. My Sales Thread.
2. My download link.

You can't get it from 2, go to 1.

You did neither.

And the price changing is pretty simple.

Last time I asked for $5 because you said you tried to do the survey but failed.

Today I asked $2 because you do not have my thread design but only my signature.

And the original price is $30, sometimes made it to $15 for a special discount.

Okay let me break this down for you.

MHC: your thread was in the money making referral section, great place to put if there is a survey, but by doing work for something doesn't make it "free" which caused it to be misleading.

Lord Death: This I'd where I'm confused. Did you send him a dollar? Or what happened there? I know you didn't do the survey (it's in the referral section so expect that), you shouldn't have downloaded it (dont know how you got it).

No hate on either of you.

But I know MHC don't fuck around with money. So just do the survey and call it even?

No side is taken but it's about being polite Lord Death. If he took his time out in doing this and didn't expect direct cash.. You might aswell just do a survey and wait for it to unlock (even though I never have luck with those fucking things either lol)

I told him his links did not work and offered him direct cash. I completed 17 of his surveys trying to download it and all failed to give me what i earned.

He refused my offer of the cash and instead wanted 5x what the survey was worth.

I did not and do not have his files. He posted a picture of it in the thread which i just edited and made into a gif. You can also still find these pictures on google as well.

The right thing for him to do was after i said i did 17 of his surveys and still didnt get what i worked for would be to give me the files. It is not my fault his surveys didnt work but his.

I did what was required and got nothing in return. Except this false scam report and an edited signature.

His greed overcame anything. Instead of taking my offer of what the survey was worth he instead insisted i pay him $5 based on the fact that he had his sales thread as well for $15. He didnt offer me a link for the files or anything.

And now his greed is overcoming common sense and he is trying to sully my name by saying i scammed him $2. I mean really.. I spend 12+ hours a day on hack forums helping people and my rep shows it.

Would i really scam someone for $2 and make it where the people i help daily dont trust me?

Unlike MHC i dont do stuff and give stuff away for free and then turn around and demand payment after. I am not greedy and have often paid people for free services in the past.

If MHC desperately wants this $2 then all he has to do is apologize to me for this stupid thread he posted, remove his rep, and send me what he is claiming i scammed him out of.

Greed is the downfall of all people, money clouds the mind to where all you want is money money money. This thread is a great example the extent someone will go to for greed.
