That's something you would have to talk to Coding4Noobs about as he is the coder.

You see. When a human owns a banana, their whole perspective of the world changes. Think of it like this, you move states, and you find a new friend.. cool right? Now look at it this way, you go online, you talk to a few people, yeah sure.. then you meet a talking banana? AND HE'S YOUR PERSONAL BANANA? FUCKING BAD ASS.

OT: Emissary is worth every cent, stable, clean, fast and easy to use.

socks proxy will be in the recode, but recode wont be anywhere near finished untill around mid july. Well... thats when you will start to hear about it more anyways. When coding i take my time to make sure there is very few bugs so that I am able to release a working product. So even if it's late and gets delayed to august.... at least it works.

Of course. I'd rather have a late working product, then a hurried unworking product.

Any ETA on when the reverse socks feature will come In? Or are we going to have to wait on the full recode for that?

(Jul 8, 2013 01:49 PM)FBI™ Wrote: CITE Any ETA on when the reverse socks feature will come In? Or are we going to have to wait on the full recode for that?

due to how 1.0 was coded, it's not idealistic to run a socks proxy on your clients(so unless you were only using a client for the proxy, the client would lag when using other functions) . The full recode is scheduled to be done by the 25. At the right we are going right now it should be done around then.

Apply to beta test here:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3607245>

IndianaPwnz - July 10, 2013, 11:04 am

Do we have to wait for the full re-code to get the issue with webcams not enabling correctly once they have been disabled once. I believe the only way to get it to work again is to wait until the client restarts their system...unless I'm the only one having this issue.

The obfuscator is actually more for your security and our security. It makes it hard for people to decompile and understand the program, thus crackers / people looking to reverse the program and find out who you are will have a harder time. It just so happens that it makes the detections lower as

So far for the 3.2 update coming out this weekend:

Code {Emissary} NET 3.2 BETA

Website: <http://new.emissarysolutions.org>

Date: 13/09/13

Dear [UN],

If you havent already done so, please update your {Emissary} NET to 3.2 via this link.

<http://new.emissarysolutions.org/portal/downloads/net30.zip>

Some changes from 3.1 to 3.2 can be found here:

New Features:

[x] Password Recovery

[x] Google Chrome

[x] File Zilla

[x] Export .txt

[x] Export .html

[x] UPnP Error Detection

[x] Connection Counter

Bug Fixes:

[x] Bitcoin miner auto reconnect (If you leave the miner on and the client disconnects, it will rejoin the mining group upon it's reconnection)

Other Changes:

[x] A Few small server changes were made to slow down incoming connections to 40 / second

[x] Obfuscator Update, control flow is now randomized

nbaprofo - September 14, 2013, 6:28 pm

Many improvements in this update. Plus, passwords recovery... That's nice!...

Speed, stability, frequent updates, and not to mention unique features like sharing your webcam, your desktop and your audio that are seen in more traditional rat's like teamviewer. Also comes with built in options to FUD your builds.

zanzebee - September 16, 2013, 6:44 am

Coding4Noobs - October 6, 2013, 6:45 pm

Will be releasing a mini update tomorrow changing up the protector a bit, and making it easier for us to edit it without release full updates.

nbaprofo - October 8, 2013, 2:22 pm

Don't hesitate to PM me if you have questions about Emissary NET or you could use the ticket system on our website Emissary.

Coding4Noobs - October 8, 2013, 5:03 pm

Sorry for the delay on the updates as i said earlier, I am extremely busy this week (up until friday) with school. Hopefully this weekend ill be able to push out a few new things for you guys.

Coding4Noobs - October 10, 2013, 5:36 pm

Alright i have a mini vacation now for 4 days expect an update on monday or tuesday with some new stuff and bug fixes if any are reported by then.

bougos08 - October 11, 2013, 12:56 pm

hey guys.can som1 tell me a way to uninstall a server with injection persistence ?

Kill the process, and delete the registry value, if you require more assistance, pm me or open a ticket.

Hold up, Ill update the remover in a few minutes to detect and remove {Emissary} NET clients. I just realized I havent updated it since the 3.0 update.

bougos08 - October 11, 2013, 2:31 pm

will that resolve my problem aswell?

Please stop spamming here and opening a million tickets saying the same thing. You only need one. Responses may take up to 24 hours. I have replied to your ticket, but I need more information on what you are talking about as I do not understand what "it crashes NON NON NON NON STOOP" means. Please respond to the ticket with the information i requested in my response. Like what's crashing the client or the server? What are you doing when it crashes? etc.

bougos08 - October 13, 2013, 2:40 pm

oh sorry.forgot about the ticket thing!yeah lets talk private

Yeh if find an issue just use the ticket system.

- 1) it verifies you actually own an {Emissary} Solutions account
- 2) I can pull up your profile and see if it's an issue with your account
- 3) The tickets are saved so I can go back later and look at any issues your reported when im working on an update.
- 4) Anyone that replies to your ticket is a trusted member of {Emissary} Solutions or works for me therefore you can be sure that the support you are receiving is the best you can get when it comes to {Emissary} Solutions products.

Yes as I have run across a few difficulties implementing some layer 7 protocols. It's currently on hold until I am able to come up with a better way to handle unknown protocols.

Finished the file searcher, I'll be releasing that update tomorrow when I get home and have access to my server.

DoPeWAFFL3 - October 20, 2013, 1:21 am

I bought this a while back, before the updates would not even download. But with the updates, this is a really good program. I can also say i vouch for this product, because i own it!

yeh i just finished the file searcher, I wasnt able to work on anything last night so the update got delayed a bit, I'll be releasing this update around 9:00 PM tonight, also I'm planning to start releasing 1 update every week, every sunday at 9:00 PM EST now that I have a little more time on weekends.
IF there is ever a reason for me not to release an update, I will post why.

Is the output of the server FUD with {Emissary} ?

I read it somewhere and was wondering if that is still the case.

When I select the protect (crypt) option, it is FUD for me. However, I tested that long ago, not sure if it still is.

EDIT:Reached prestige 10 on this post :D

I like the way the update automatically updated when launching Emissary.

Anyway, I just submitted a ticket regarding the detection rate on the stubs/crypter.

Code {Emissary} NET 3.4

Website: <http://new.emissarysolutions.org>

Date: 20/10/13

Dear [UN],

If you havent already done so, please update your {Emissary} NET to 3.4 via this link.

<http://new.emissarysolutions.org/portal/downloads/net30.zip>

Some changes from 3.3 to 3.4 can be found here:

New Features:

- [x] Ability to choose collumns on the "Clients" tab. To select the collumnds, right click at the top on the collumns for a new menu
- [x] Ability to enable or disable UPnP
- [x] UPnP is automatically Enabled (This is due to most users requiring it)
- [x] Clients running a different version now show up as brown / red
- [x] On Connect Bitcoin Miner
- [x] File Searche
 - [x] Search By Drive
 - [x] Search By Keyword
 - [x] Files Searched
 - [x] Directories Searched
 - [x] Timed Searched
- [x] Upload and Execute Status

Bug Fixes:

- [x] Keylogger Duplicated logs Bug
- [x] Client Crash (Occured on rare occaisions during reconnection)

Other Changes:

- [x] Protector Now Requires .NET 3.5 and no longer 4.0 (Due to the current methods we are using, we can not lower it to 2.0)

Here is the change log of Emissary NET 3.4.

The entire {Emissary} project is being sold. The founder(s) Coding4Noobs can no longer put in the required amount of time to update it. All of the {Emissary} products (partly done or fully done) are being sold together for about 1k I believe, that is what I remember. There is a thread on the forums somewhere...

Project is dead and is no longer being sold or supported.
