In my local shop, they only charge for $10. GLWS though whosgt - June 23, 2013, 8:14 pm

Apologies if this comes off as rude or unnecessary to you, but; the prices are way too high, you have to consider the options people have and base your prices on that. $180 for a T-Mobile unlock? I can just go to my local phone service shop and get it done for $20.

I'm buying some cheap Ass Cricket Phones iPhone 4s for $300

Is there ANY way for USA Cricket Unlock? I've heard it's not possible but are there ANY possibilities?

T-Mobile Unlocks your iPhone once you've paid the phone's total and you have to have paid 3 of your monthly charges to cover the iPhone Original Cost

"do I suggest you go back to school for a bit, cause you already lost it for summer." Look at your grammar, you shouldn't suggest me to do shit.

Also, this guy has lower prices. <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2884251>
