Hey fellow HF users, I finally got the amazing PM of being approved for Ub3R, i thought 100% I would get denied but nope I got approved..

But this sucks, my amazing friend purchased me L33t because I don't have online $$, this means I can't upgrade to Ub3r! But oh well I am still very happy knowing if I had money online I can become an Ub3r and join the blue side!

My Favorite Pm:

It's always great to help strangers, isn't it? :D Never seen you in my life - but I'll pay for your Ub3r.

PM me your Paypal email.

Edit: Nah, I'll just pay for it myself. Wait a few hours and you should have it.

You can try to enter contests or ask a irl friend if he could buy it for you and you pay him back with real money?

But congratz man :)

Love is a multi-accounter, I wouldn't trust him. Deal with extreme caution he usually is extremely sketchy about these types of things.

JK, nice on crying so some1 gets you ub3r (:

You got like 4,000$ though you showed me it.

Why not use that 0.0
