Thread: [\[HQ\] \[Empire\] Official Usergroup Avatar & Signature Service](#)

Sajuuk - July 2, 2013, 7:51 pm

The old thread.

I now offer avatars in addition to signatures.

[img]http://www.imgus.net/bilder/c8bb771726fb6c7d9ec7428aaeb8cacb.png[/img]

Please specify what type of GFX you want (avatar or signature) and please choose from the following usergroups:

Code The Alliance

Graphic Masters

Fly By Night

Reverence

Respawn

Innovation

Techsperts

Rhythm

The Corporation

Legion

Red Lions

Legacy

The Lannisters

Brotherhood

Complexity

Propitious

Infamous

Illuminati

Blackshades

Valor

Terror

Black Diamond

Serenity

Guardians

Skill

The Empire

Logic

The Angels

Void

143

The Black Knights

Root

The Informers

The Creed

Attention:

I have confirmed with all group leaders that this service is okay to host.

+Pirate doesn't want me to use Innovation's logo.

I've still got to contact a leader of the Graphics Masters to get permission to use their logo.

I've been instructed to not make The Alliance signatures due to it's high-quality-ness.

[M] has informed me of the fact that I can make Black Diamond signatures for the group's members only.

This service is free of charge.

I reserve the right to deny your request for my GFX service.

Neat little service you have going here, I'm sure that many people will be ticked off :)

Mahdy - July 3, 2013, 12:11 am

Would you be able to make me some userbars for my forums? My health boards are almost complete, this is the last thing I need.

Why are you wearing an Infamous sig? You're not in Infamous.

iNuke - July 3, 2013, 9:43 pm

You should have asked every group if they would agree with you doing this before opening this thread.

You're wearing an Infamous signature when you're not Infamous. You're using our images when you don't have the right to. Unless you asked to one of the three Infamous leaders (iNviZ, TheHackersLove or Pali), you can not do that.

And I am not talking about Infamous only - it was just an example - I am talking about every groups.

This is only my opinion though. But you have to ask leaders of each group before opening a such service.

So I decided I'd open up this service this service around a week ago. I PMed the leaders of every single group (including your beloved Infamous leader, iNviZ), and every one of them (except Paradoxum of The Alliance) said it was okay if I made signatures using their logo. Yes, bugga, Hecicidal, every one of the group leaders. Black Diamond is a special case: I can only make sigs for those whom are in it.

Now here's the funny part: I made an Alliance signature for myself one day, and two members came and negged me for it. I've explained everything to them, and they decided to change their reps all to neutrals. It makes me wonder why people spontaneously act without looking into things.

Funny how I have a PM from iNviZ that says he gives me permission to use the Infamous logo in my sig service. So uhm, is that good enough for you? ?

Well, to be honest, I didn't neg you or whatever. I was JUST saying that you should have asked permissions, because at the time of today it's not written in the thread that you asked permissions to group leaders.

You took it the wrong way man. Relax. ?

You're all fine if you asked permission to iNviz (how do you know he is my beloved? It was a secret...) and to other group leaders. I didn't say you did not ask for it, I was just wondering and giving you my opinion.

EDIT: Actually, I was "looking into things" (as you said) by writing and posting my first post on your thread.

I did not rate your thread, I can assure you. You just opened a service and everything, you put some times on it so no I wouldn't have to rate your thread by one star. I don't really rate threads.

Great, it will make things neater. Now every body is aware that you asked the permission. Thank you for editing the OP.

Good luck with your service. ?
