Hey, I'm curious as to why I get unlimited disk space for $5 on the shared hosting, but only 20GB disk space for $6 on the VPS?

Different services, different prices.

The Vps are not only used for hosting but mostly to run scripts and services, so the Vps disk space is not the main feature of a vps server.

And these are prices we decided.

Sure. They have 10Gbps DDos protection for their network, and me being a costumer with my servers on their network I also have the same protection.

The CloudFlare is not a "must have". Is just that I always used it and so I'll keep with it.

SharkTech Today Newsletter:

Quote:We are very pleased to announce the completion of our network upgrades in our Denver facility. We have officially finished upgrading our DDoS protection systems increasing our DDoS protection total capacity by 400%! This will provide significant improvement for service quality when your system is under DDoS attack.

To summarize the upgrades done to our network in Denver:

1. Upgraded Network Routing Infrastructure, increasing our Internet capacity upto 60Gbps with the ability to increase to 120Gbps at any given time.
2. Upgraded our Network switching infrastructure increasing our uplink capacity between switching segments and our routers.
3. Enhanced systems redundancy of our network infrastructure.
4. Increased accuracy of our Network Intrusion Detection Systems (NIDS) increasing performance and detection rate of DDoS attacks.
5. Increased our DDoS protection total capacity by 400%

We are planning finalize our upgrades for our Chicago facility within the next couple of months.

Thank you for your patience and continued business.

So guys we bought the company HostCookie, so now we are working in the transfer of all the clients, so if you are a HostCookie client, check your email because you have some emails explaining the situation.

All the clients will stay with the same service and with better performance.

As you can see on our website, we don't have VPN's for selling as HostCookie had, but thats just a matter of time. We already bought some servers to build the VPN's and transfer all the VPN clients of HostCookie to us.

So it's just a matter of time to finish all the process.

Yes there is Sir.

If using the shared IP, we need to see if the port you want is available.

If its not you always have the choice to buy a dedicated ip and open the ports you want on it.

But as I said if the ports you want are not in use already on the shared ip, you don't need a dedicated :)

The way that user took the image, of course it is update as he entered in the link of the updated image.

Having a dynamic image of your uptime is being legitimate, taking a snapshot of the first few hours of your site's uptime is deceiving and could be considered false advertisement.

P.S. Thanks for your neg rep, for proving that you're a sham.

HF allows dynamic images. They're active links, not just snapshots saves on HF's servers. That would be really inefficient, and fairly memory consuming.

- 7) Okay...?

eCoLoGy - July 28, 2013, 6:35 pm

Ok guys! All the problems were solved!

Let's go by steps:

1 - Today our WebHost server was down because the datacenter found some blackhat activities running in the host account of some of our clients.

All the actions were taken and we suspended that clients account.

2 - There were some users claiming we were lying to our clients, because our PingDom image on the main post was a static image with 100% uptime. That is true, it's a static image, but that was just because I thought the code just accepted url's with picture extensions, like .jpg or .png. But if you clicked on the image, it was going to the dynamic real time uptime, so just with that, you can see that we weren't lying. I just didn't knew that was possible to use the [IMG] code with the url of PinDom that shows the dynamic image, as it is "<https://share.pingdom.com/banners/3ba658b3>" with no extension.

I'd like to thank "Vicellus Drum" for telling me that is possible.

Last, I want you all to have in mind, that we are not forced to have PingDom. PingDom is a paid script that we decided to use, so all of our costumers have a clean and true information about our uptimes. It's not a right, it's a gift and it gives us credibility.

3 - As you can see, there are lots of bad intentioned guys that took the tiny chance when we get down today, trying to bring us down with bad comments and trying to make us seem a bad company. Well, I have a message for all that guys: stop losing your time trying to beat us down. Instead, try to grow your companies to be better than us!

And that's it guys!

We are up and running and everything is solved.

Yes he is selling because the nameservers he gave me were coldsi nameservers but they dont even work and when people host their site on his hosting they get hacked so his server isnt even secure.

The server is safe.

What might not be safe is some account of his clients.

Also our nameservers work as we have many clients using them with us.

Anyway you need to talk to him as the company he owns is not mine.

Alright so Yesterday, I purchased a vps from this hosting, since I thought It was "Legit" and guess what happened?

I go to <http://dreamstresser.com/> and I see the SAME EXACT Source that I'm using for my 2nd upcoming Stresser witch is <http://unleashedstresser.com>

Now, I thought "Meh , it's Fibre source.. Everyone uses it..." I WAS WRONG.

I was even able to login with the same login details as my upcoming stresser.

There was a security issue yes, but in the webhost server, not in the VPS servers, and as I know, you have a VPS not a webhost.

It's so close to legit that we don't have any complaints about getting content ripped, just from you.

And I say again: you've a vps with us, so if from a 1% chance you got your site ripped, its not because of us but because of some fail in your vps, that I say again, it's not managed!

We had our Hard Drive replaced for a new one and we've placed back the backups of all our customers account.

I'm sorry for this delay but this October month was a terrible month for us (all the problems came at the same time) ?

Anyway both Netherlands and France webhost servers are now fully working.

If you are facing any problem related with your webhost or reseller don't hesitate to PM me or send a ticket.

Also I know I've not answered some tickets yet but I spent the last weeks solving our servers problems so I've been busy a lot.

I'll try to get all the tickets answered today!

Also the problem with our Instant Activation has been solved.

It happened to be a issue with my Paypal account but it seems to be solved know.

Thank you for your patience!
I'll provide all webhost and reseller customers a full free month of service.
If you are a customer and you don't receive yours by the weekend, please PM me so I can provide you the full free month.

Going to work now with solving the problem of our VPN opening ports and we're done with the full maintenance.

We have now a new server in romania with 500Gbps DDos Protection guys!

On that server we have available WebHost, WebHost Resellers and WebHost Master Resellers!

Pick yours ?

it wont let me go on WHMCS :(

please fix so i can create a ticket for my issue.

eCoLoGy - January 3, 2014, 9:39 pm

Seems like the Mysql was down.

I've just started it.

Ok guys the server is now fixed.

We've been doing an huge maintenance on the webhost server.

Its fixed now. If you have any problem you can now open a support ticket.

Tinhead - January 13, 2014, 3:56 pm

Opened a Support ticket, but still havent had a reply been 2 days now, VPNs are down and have been for a week

Nighthawk - January 22, 2014, 2:05 am server is down & made a ticket 1 or 2 weeks ago to get changed to a new server because France keeps going down and still have not got a reply.

please fix, thank you.

Am I the only person who bought a VPS, that doesn't work??? I'm gonna do a ChargeBack Tomorrow if it doesn't get fixed. I have been ignored and my game is down because of this.

Nighthawk - February 2, 2014, 1:55 am it seems as if there is no support at all ?

been waiting a month for them to switch me to a new server.

been waiting a month for them to switch me to a new server. I'm having the same problem with the support, I entered a ticket a month ago because the client wouldn't connect. Still having the problem with some of the locations.

clawtionary - February 5, 2014, 4:56 am

Are they ever gonna get this fixed?!?!?

eCoLoGy - February 10, 2014, 2:07 pm

Ok guys sorry for the downtime but we have some big news for all of you.

We are merging with another company and all the services, servers and everything will change for better.

All our customers will keep their services and will receive free time for the downtime.

I'll have this topic closed while we are in the change process.

Thank you all!
