User is legit. Just got done doing MW3 recoveries and MW2 lobbies with him.

Eth?n - July 5, 2013, 10:19 am

He did my mw3 for me yesterday. My vouch doesn't mean much here but he's legit.

king mala - July 5, 2013, 11:27 am

I am going to buy the BO2 service. I was very satisfied with the MW3 recovery I bought yesterday

SRT Maniac - July 5, 2013, 11:29 am

I think you are taking preorders because you don't have money for stealth and are only buying plat one day at a time. Then we also take into account you are using shared kv's which will result in the banning of our accounts off the xbox live servers and possibly a console ban.

No this is not the case at all. I already have plenty of unshared KVS. I can afford more than a day but i will simply not waste my money without knowing i will make profit like i did yesterday. So i advise if you dont know what your talking about, dont talk t all.

king mala - July 5, 2013, 12:00 pm

Tweet, you should get on and do my BO2 service real quick :D

Even if he is using a shared KV, XBLS will prevent any account from being banned.

Vouch for Tweet

I have not seen members get banned from his services yet

The kv has nothing to do with what happens to your account. Kv is for the Console nothing to do with your account. Please dont talk if you dont know what your saying because you just sounded completely Dumb.

Its wise to take pre-orders as its more organized and a smarter way to do it. 2nd of all were not taking money, were just getting in contact in advanced of the people that want it. Finding people the same day were doing it would waste our stealth time as well as the customers time.

Your vouch does mean something, Just because your not a high ranked member. To me every member is the same, so thank you for your vouch.

There is not a 100% guarantee there, but the chances of being banned are very very low. Also I use a Unshared KV type 2. I would never go on any ones accounts using a shared KV.

This is correct.

Also i think he made that post to get his post count up.

Anyway still taking pre-orders.

Inalienable - July 6, 2013, 7:46 am
