So this site has just opened and we are looking for peoples feedback and suggestions on how to improve the site.

Here's what we're about:

Thanks for reading and I'm looking forward to your feedback!

Copy-pasting my post from the other thread than;

Don't like the domain name that much, an "a" instead of an "e". Also, how much experience does he have? Why will his forum become big and succeed?

Well first off I apologize for the inconvenience our first thread has been moved to the lounge, but we still want to showcase it here to get reviews.

As for the sites experience level, each staff members has a different background, for example I make my money via YouTube and Google AdSense. Now keep in mind these a two completely different things, on YouTube I'm partnered with four networks who pay me per click or per view. While on the other hand with Google AdSense I get paid per click on my niche websites. I would consider myself very experienced in these two areas, and will be helping our members partner there channels and will be showing them how to successfully make money on YouTube. I also help in niche website construction, so that members can also make money via Google AdSense.

On the other side of things, we have a broad range of members, and staff members who excel at making money in a variety of different ways. In the premium section you'll see a lot of PPD/CPA guru tutorials, HYIP talk, how to monetize your social media, and an abundance of other money making tutorials. If you would like me to completely go into the specifics of things, I'd be more than happy to send you a personal message and explain what else we offer! If you sign up I guarantee you'll learn something new.

Why will this forum become big and succeed?

Because we genuinely care about our members, we feel that we have exclusive tips, tricks, and tutorials on our site that makes on one of a kind. We have a fantastic staff team who is there to assist you on your money making journey, if you have a question I guarantee one of us can answer it. Also becoming big, and succeeding are two different things to me, If I could have a small active community that helps one another, and becomes successful in making money online, I'll consider that a success.
