Thread: Thread Design #1 \(First Thread Design\)

Cesar Morales - July 10, 2013, 2:36 pm

Please tell me if I should release the .psd file! After a long two hours of watching Prison Break, drinking coffee, and messing around in Photoshop CS6, this is the result. Please give me your CONSTRUCTIVE criticism, no "this sucks, go uninstall photoshop" bull shit please. Thank you for your time!

jonnna - July 10, 2013, 3:49 pm

Looking good mate, maybe you can start up a thread design service.

Zen - July 10, 2013, 4:17 pm

Pretty generic looking. I guess it's good for your first design, but it's the same noise and dividers I've always seen.

moron #543 - July 10, 2013, 4:39 pm

Looks like every other thread design, nothing fascinating.

Not sure why these are different sizes and in random places:

Not centered:

Aside from that, I'd use a different font for either the header or the detail text to give it contrast.

Swift Gold - July 10, 2013, 5:10 pm

Looks great overall, I have to go with what Darren said about the text being different sizes, its weird :P

Good job though!

Warning - July 10, 2013, 5:52 pm

Looks great but the phone and envelope look lq, but nice.

Brigadier - July 10, 2013, 5:54 pm

I would say it looks nice, but hey I don't want to lie!

Cesar Morales - July 10, 2013, 6:45 pm

thanks guys, i appreciate all of the replies :) - i will work on getting the .psd file in an organized fashion (make it clear where what is what) - thank you again! :)

CitrUs - July 10, 2013, 8:47 pm

Light Yagami - December 21, 2013, 7:37 am

I could imagine the resized text is to see what different text sizes look like :)

Very nice, keep it up and I might use it soon :b

Homesick - December 21, 2013, 11:34 am

This along with your signature looks amazing! 10/10

J4mie - December 21, 2013, 11:36 am

Oh jeez thats nice, and i am LOVING your signature, is there any guide on how to create something like that? gonna PM you. good job though 10/10

Baghead - December 21, 2013, 12:51 pm

The noise is unappealing and generic

Poor font choice, pretty dull overall

The space you provided for screenshots/information is way too small. If you look at other marketplace threads, there's always a ton of irrelevant info; there's no room for that in the space you've provided

There's also a lot of spacing and alignment issues

Good for your first try, but there is a lot to work on. You should try doing some more simple designs. Remove some of all the unnecessary styles, and you'll be good to go. Keep on going.

Zink - December 22, 2013, 2:48 pm

I rate an 8 especially since it your first Thread creation, good job

Cyan - December 22, 2013, 2:50 pm

I really like it bro, I think it looks clean and simple.

Good job bro.

OLiVeRX8 - December 26, 2013, 1:32 pm

over all i like it...the lines, the background looks good, goes excellent with the name...

Bad Meets Evil - December 26, 2013, 4:10 pm

Just noise, icons and layer styles without any unique or effective design.

Don't try and do what other people are doing, forge your own path.

Expels - December 27, 2013, 11:54 pm

First time? That looks AMAZING :) atleast for a first time. Nice job 7/10

thyduke - December 28, 2013, 12:02 am

dorik - December 28, 2013, 5:04 am

Hidden™ - December 29, 2013, 7:45 pm

Holy sweet baby Jesus. You should release this.

Vexane - December 29, 2013, 7:47 pm

1) Motherfucker, this takes 10000 hours to load on my PC, my internet is chocking itself right now
a.k.a. make smaller file sizes

2) It's really nice for your first honestly, you should do more

3) Change up the font just a tad (1-2 fonts in the whole thing)

4) Read #2 again

Six-Nine - January 15, 2014, 2:09 am
