Thread: 18 Years Old & Making \$8520 In 4 Months

Reticulum - July 11, 2013, 7:18 pm

Most kids my age are spending money on college or making minimum wage at some shitty job. I dropped out of high school in February (I know it was dumb to do so) and unlike most drop outs I've made almost 10k in those months of me not being in school. School was never something I enjoy'd, it always felt like it was a waste of time. Once I got it out of the way I started devoting my time to finding new methods and I found this one, and it's made me a killing. I couldn't be anymore happy with my life right now.

+Affinity - July 11, 2013, 7:20 pm

Wouldn't be interested in selling your method?

aSmoo - July 11, 2013, 7:20 pm

That's a very nice profit there! Good luck for your future earnings.
What are you using?

PS : Now you'll get loads of PM asking your method :D

I am 18 too just turned 18 2 months ago. Maybe you can help me out?? cause I need money for college.

subliminalnarcotic - July 11, 2013, 7:26 pm

2k a month is like a typical 10$ an hour full time job.

PHoeNuHX - July 11, 2013, 7:26 pm

Then paypal limits you and you lose everything.

brian188246 - July 11, 2013, 7:28 pm

You should hope your earnings increase if you plan to do this full time. As you can't get much with that amount, at least where I live you can't.

But for a start, good job.

It's not full time, I also work 5 days a week earning $10 an hour. I do this on the side. I'm making enough to support both me and my girlfriend.

Lol, I highly doubt Paypal is going to limit me.

?Starfire? - July 12, 2013, 12:15 am

Nice job, also, 10k in just 4 months is a awesome turnout better yet if its just on the side, good luck earning more.

-TheOmen- - July 12, 2013, 12:54 am

Congrats but lets be honest man. Niches don't last forever and hopefully you can bank as much as you can get before they die out. Then it's back to the books. :|

ovac - July 12, 2013, 1:05 am

And then your Paypal gets rammed in the ass and you lose your money .-.

#R00T~ - July 14, 2013, 2:14 am

Yeah but I bet this dude doesn't need to wake up early as fuck in the morning, worrying about lots of stuff.. Food, travel, whatever.

He doesn't need to go to bed because of a time, he goes to bed because he is tired.

He has freedom, if he wants to take a beer he does that.

If he wants to light one up, he does that.

If he wants to sit in his underwear, he does that.

If he wants to throw a party, he does that.

And who knows, maybe he only spends like 2-3 hours a day?

You see the difference right? ?

Awesome OP, really proud of you! Keep going man! ?

Prestigio - July 14, 2013, 12:22 pm

Good method mate jejeje i not imagine your inbox mp jaja

InspectorGadget - July 14, 2013, 1:03 pm

That's all well and good, but it's temporary like a youtube channel, what you gonna do after?
Also I'm 18 and I'm on £7.94 an hour, 40 hours a week :D

Reticulum - August 28, 2013, 6:22 pm

For anyone who was interested about the method I have chosen to sell it! Come check it out, I made a killer thread design (:

I currently make about $300 to $450 a day consistently with PPC. But I'm 19, turning almost 20, and I finished high school and completed college to get my computer science diploma. I've been doing internet marketing online since I was like 14, and I have never had to work for anyone by myself. It's a great feeling :)

I congratulate you on your efforts, but i'de recommend getting a college diploma as a backup option.

Penar - August 30, 2013, 7:02 am

Ehem, I'm sure if a High School drop out has enough motivation to make this much money in 4 months, he's smart enough to live on his own and succeed further than most.

Hayley Williams - August 30, 2013, 8:44 pm

Not everything on the internet last forever, so I recommend that you at least get a degree as a backup plan.

In the future, $10 an hour won't give you much, especially in this economy.

Blizzard - August 31, 2013, 5:14 am

Just to be honest, You should have been on school lol

The fact is that if you struggle, and get a good job, that'll last forever, you could make the money more you earned online a month or a week and lead a happy life.

With you're way, You'll have a quick start, You will earn probably more and more and it won't last forever.

I had a friend, who left university and then he got excited in online businesses and made a good profit after researching a lot, that just happen to be a month and his niche died and he makes exactly 0/per year and he is still researching.

Well, I would say, if I was you, I would finish school, university, get a good job and then do it as a side business to earn online.

After all, that's a great money you have earned, I just talk about my experience with my friends. Well, Good luck on earning more on future.

"Any idiot can make a short term profit - you can sell your house and make a MASSIVE short term profit, it will only bit him in the ass when he realizes he has no where to live" - Frankie Boyle

My question is, what you gonna do when the method dries up? You'll have a shitty job on minimum wage much longer than if you had stayed in school...

I am 18 and I earn about $6500 in 4 months, however I have a full time job so I have no worries about it drying up...

I to have a full time job, as for my method drying up, it wont. It's been around for 5+ years and is still booming.

I've seen his method, and I'm 100% sure it won't ever dry up. It can't be saturated really. By the time it would dry up, he'd have more than enough to live on for quite a while anyways.

Thats a very limiting belief right there. A lot of highly successful people like Bill Gates dropped out of high school/college. With the internet and entrepreneurship, you can succeed at anything you want to do.

You just got to have the right mindset, determination, and positive vibrations to accomplish what you set out to do. Every successful person knows that we become what we think about, but so many people believe that everything is out of their control and that they are victims of life. This is simply not true. It's all about how we perceive things.

I can give you many examples of celebrities and rich people, politicians, athletes who have the exact same way of thinking over the last century.

A large percentage of people think they need to follow the norm and instead of dreaming big, they just settle for a mediocre lifestyle. It certainly helps to be open-minded and have an interest in constantly learning new things.

That's cool, minus the fact that I put in maybe 1/10 the amount of hours it would have taken to earn this working a minimum wage job.

B?tcoin - September 3, 2013, 3:20 pm

$8.5k in 4 months is a good feat at your age but once the people that decide to continue with their education finishes their undergrad, they'll be making what you make in 1 year in a couple months. Again, this is great and all but isn't a long term plan. $35k ~ $40K a year is a horrible income and I hope you aren't striving for such a low standard.

Could you explain how making between $2,900 and $3,300 per month is a terrible income? You could easily make a house payment, car payment, utilities and food bills with a pretty good amount of cash left over.
