Thread: AOL Spammer DB: pulls account information on AOL emails

?K47 - April 10, 2010, 9:49 pm

This programs method uses a spammer database to pull aol account info that people used when signing up for spam. So don't expect the info to always be correct but also don't expect it to be wrong because I have pulled a good amount of legit info's on emails and used it for socialing the accounts.

For your socialing needs refer to...

Hey thanks alot for the share ! . i tried it and it seemed to work rather well ,?

Sarge - April 13, 2010, 12:50 am anyone check this on a scan yet? i just checked it, its clean as far as i can tell.

made it past COMODO on paranoid mode as well, so im pretty sure its clean.

First off, the program works verry well.

I was just curious how people get access to the email using this information in live chat though?
AOL Live chat reps seem to stop me without me knowign the SQ/A or the last 4 digits of the last payment method?

Anyway around that?

Thanks!
