Wondering if anyone else has seen the greatness that is Danshi Koukousei no Nichijou. It's an older series and isn't full of moe cute things like most series nowadays, but it is amazing in its own way. Just full of laughs and jokes that last.

OMG, I loved this series. One of the funniest series I've ever watched. Too bad there's only one season D:

I heard a Live Action is in the makes. But the series is postponed because it didn't sell well. Author is focusing on his Touhou works instead.

Yeah, this is also one of the funniest shows I have watched! I was actually surprised with the live action and I think a live action would ruin it.
